Pastor's Point of View...

For this I was born and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice."(Jn 18:37)

Jesus witnessed to the truth about the kingdom of God - not in conformity with the values of the world, e.g. consumerism, competition, fashion, fame and fortune. As a witness of the truth in the world today, have you personally felt being in conflict with society's values? Have you ever taken a public stand against any of those values? Kingship may seem to be a foreign concept to many of us but in the heart of a Christian, kingship is not about power, glamour or wealth but is rather manifested in loving service, daily and hourly. Like Christ the King, we are called to be humble, just and truthful. Like Christ our King, we are called to lay down our lives that others may truly live. When a liturgical year ends, a new one unfolds, beginning with the Advent season. During these four months of Advent, I shall be commissioning our administrative ministries - the finance and parish pastoral councils during the Sunday masses where an administrative ministry member is present. I would like to take this opportunity to thank all those who have joined these administrative ministries in the past year(s) and wish them the best as they move on to other ministries.

Notable among the new ministries at St. Faustina's is the audio/visual ministry headed by Melvin Gomez. Melvin is also leading the newly formed Coro Santa Faustina of our Spanish community. We also have the Consolation & Bereavement ministry led by Diane Maglione and the Hospitality/Sunday morning coffee & donuts ministry led by Ann Marie DeBisschop and Barbara Gillis. We hope to start the morning coffee/donuts during the Sundays of Advent, after the 8AM, 930AM and 11AM masses in the parish office meeting hall. Everyone is welcome to socialize and get to know one another, old timers and newcomers alike! This is the sort of kingship into which everyone is baptized into. May the days ahead inspire us to see a clearer vision of 'a new heaven and a new earth' under the kingship of Jesus Christ our King! And by the way, your thoughts, comments and feedbacks would be highly appreciated!

Fr. Ramon

To him who loves us and has freed us from our sins by his blood, who has made us into a kingdom, priests for his God and Father, to him be glory and power forever and ever. Amen. (RV 1:6)
