A Message from Father Carlos - Un Mensaje de Padre Carlos

Dear Parish Community of St. Faustina,

The Third Sunday of Advent is known as Gaudette Sunday, which means, Rejoice Sunday. The time of the Lord's coming is very near. In today's Gospel we come in contact once again with John the Baptist, who is preaching and baptizing along the Jordan river. The baptism he is offering is one of repentance in preparation for the coming of the Messiah, who's arrival is very much near. With a sense of urgency, John the Baptist is issuing a call: "Make straight the way of the Lord," as the prophet Isaiah said.

The word "Grace" means Gift. This Supernatural Gift is not for John the Baptist to give. The only one that can offer this Gift is the Messiah, the Son of the living God. That is why John is simply issuing a loud cry in the wilderness of the Jordan desert, to repent and prepare for Christ's coming.

The color of the vestments Father John, Deacon Chris and I are wearing this Third Sunday of Advent matches the rose candle in our Advent wreath. It accentuates the loud cry given by John in the desert. This wakeup call should stir in our hearts a desire to seek justice, truth, and peace, as we await the coming of the Lord.

Finding justice, peace, and truth in our daily lives is a blessed opportunity that connect us with the one and only life-giving Gift. This Gift was given to us at our Baptism. The Gift is God's Grace! May we never lose sight of it as we echo the words of John in our own surroundings, inviting others to rejoice and prepare for the coming of the Lord. Ánimo.

St. Faustina... Pray for us.

Father Carlos J.

Querida comunidad parroquial de St. Faustina,

El Tercer Domingo de Adviento es conocido como Domingo de Gaudette, que significa Domingo de Regocijo. El momento de la llegada del Señor está muy cerca. En el Evangelio de hoy nos ponemos en contacto una vez más con Juan el Bautista, quien está predicando y bautizando a lo largo del Río Jordán. El bautismo que él ofrece es un bautismo de arrepentimiento en preparación para la venida del Mesías, cuya llegada está muy cerca. Con un sentido de urgencia, Juan el Bautista está haciendo un llamado: "Enderecen el camino del Señor", como dijo el profeta Isaías.

La palabra "Gracia" significa Regalo. Este Regalo Sobrenatural no es para ser dado por Juan el Bautista. El Único que puede ofrecer este Regalo es el Mesías, el Hijo del Dios Vivo. Es por eso que Juan simplemente está clamando en alta voz en el desierto del Jordán, para que la gente se arrepienta y se prepare para la venida de Cristo.

El color de las vestiduras que el Padre John, Diacono Chris y yo llevamos puestas este Tercer Domingo de Adviento combina con la vela color rosa de nuestra corona de Adviento. Este color acentúa el clamor que en alta voz hace Juan en el desierto. Este llamado a despertar debe incitar en nuestro corazón un deseo de buscar la justicia, la verdad, y la paz, al esperar la llegada del Señor.

Encontrar justicia, paz y verdad en nuestra vida diaria es una bendita oportunidad que nos conecta con el Único Regalo que da vida. Este Regalo nos fue dado en nuestro Bautismo. ¡El Regalo es la Gracia de Dios! Que nunca lo perdamos de vista al hacer eco de las palabras de Juan en nuestro derredor, invitando a los demás a regocijarse y a prepararse para la llegada del Señor. Ánimo.

Santa Faustina... Ruega por nosotros

Padre Carlos J

ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL FIRST AT OUR NEW HOME LOCATION

Since moving into our N. Boggy Marsh Road location earlier this year, our parish has experienced a tremendous amount of growth and “firsts”. The first weekend of this month, the parish held its first “Holiday Market”, where parishioners had an opportunity to purchase unique crafts from donations, our Youth Group, and our Caring Crafters Ministry. Coming up is our first Christmas, our first New Year and, of course, the one-year celebration of our first Mass on February 4.

GRIEF SUPPORT -- The holidays can be tough as we remember the loved ones who are no longer with us. If you need help navigating through this time of the year, please know that the St. Faustina's Grief Support group is here for you. For more information, please e-mail us at: kmuci@stfaustina.org

FIRST FRIDAY ADORATION SIGN-UP OPPORTUNITY — During this year of Eucharistic Revival, St. Faustina will be honoring our Lord, Jesus Christ, every First Friday through 12 Hours of Eucharistic adoration. In order to have a constant vigil of prayer before the Blessed Sacrament, we must make sure that each hour during the day is covered. Therefore, it is necessary for each person to commit to one specific hour each month. In this way, the hours can be organized so that someone is with Jesus all the time. If you would like to share some time with the greatest gift of all, our Lord Jesus Christ. Please sign up in the adoration folder, located on the table in the Narthax. Within the quiet of our hearts, we find God. Within the whisper of our souls, He speaks. And it all begins by being present with God during Eucharistic Adoration. Please plan to spend some special time with the Lord. He is ALWAYS there for us. Let us be there for Him.

Since the church will close each day after the 8:00 AM Mass on Tuesday, December 26th through Friday, December 29th, the Adoration sign-up folder will be in the Narthax the weekend of December 23 for the January 5th First Friday.

What a wonderful way to start the new year!

Lopez/Martinez Family Is Selected the K of C “Family of the Month”

The Lopez/Martinez family is our Knights of Columbus Family of the Month of November. They demonstrate one of the principals of our religion, teaching Catholic values to our children. They are proud parents of seven children. They participate in celebrating the Mass together as a family. Three of the children are altar servers and the other two are lecturers.

Gaudete Sunday, by Beth Price of Diocesan Publications

Rejoicing is the theme of today’s readings on this Gaudete Sunday. We are filled with joy, because the Lord is coming and is almost here! “God is the joy of my soul,” the prophet Isaiah says in the first reading. He truly is my joy, my God, my all.

I have joy because I know what is to come. My Savior, Jesus Christ, will soon be born again. Joy beams in the broad smile that instantly bursts onto my face when I see a friend or family member. I feel joy hearing a child giggle or an adult unexpectedly laugh out loud. I rejoice knowing that the love of the Lord is really present in my life and in the world.

Being human, there are many times that I forget that joy. The words proclaimed in the first reading remind me to make my ways straight, to prepare for His presence in the world and most importantly, in my life. I need to be intimately aware of this Companion on my journey during the highs and lows and turns and twists of life, the gift of Christ Jesus and the Holy Spirit.

The “O Antiphons”, which begin annually on the 17th of December, are seven ancient refrains that proclaim titles of the Messiah going back to the 4th century. They are sung or prayed during evening prayer before the Magnificat during the days leading up to Christmas Eve. Each speaks about the coming of the Messiah from prophets of the Old Testament.

“O Wisdom” is today’s refrain before the Gospel. “O Wisdom of our God Most High, guiding creation with power and love: come to teach us the path of knowledge!” I have joy in the wisdom and knowledge of what is to come: my Savior, Jesus Christ. I am aware of the joy of anticipation of a birth or new beginning. It is the gift of metanoia, a change of heart to begin anew with the graces given to me through His humble birth to Mary.

May my soul rejoice in my Lord and Savior! May I be granted a metanoia of heart and spirit to grow in wisdom and knowledge that leads me closer to the glory and wonder of God. Amen!

St. John of Kanty

By Marylu Mariniello

John Cantius was born in Kęty, a small town near Oświęcim, Poland. His parents were Anna and Stanisław Kanty.

Not much is known about his childhood, but as a young adult he attended the Kraków Academy, receiving a bachelor's degree and then a Doctorate Degree in Philosophy in 1418. He was a philosophy teacher at the university level for the next three years, while preparing for the priesthood.

After he was ordained, John became the rector at the school of the Canons Regular of the Most Holy Sepulcher in Miechów. Then he was offered a professorship of Sacra Scriptura (Holy Scripture) back at Kraków Academy, his alma mater. Years later the Academy would be renamed Jagiellonian University, where Pope John Paul II attended.

John attained a Doctorate in Theology and became the Director of the Theology department, maintaining this professorship until his death in 1473. He spent many hours copying manuscripts of the Holy Scriptures, theological writings and other religious works. Twenty six volumes have survived, with a total of eighteen thousand pages. He was also proficient in physics, helping develop Jean Buridan's Theory of Impetus, which predated the works of Galileo and Newton. At this time, he made one pilgrimage to Jerusalem, hoping to become a martyr and four pilgrimages to Rome, all on foot.

While he was at Kraków, Father John became well known for his generosity and compassion toward the poor, especially the poor students at the university. He ate meagerly, giving his money to those in need. With all of his wonderful traits, he was also the victim of hate and gossip. Rivals resented John's popularity with the students and brought a false charge against him. Father John was thrown out of the university, not even being allowed to appear at his own hearing or to testify in his own defense. Now he was forty one years old and an apprentice pastor, sent to Olkusz in Bohemia in 1431.

The new congregation was suspicious of their new pastor, assuming that he was a big city professor who would not think well of their small town in the country. They also believed that they inherited a priest who was "in disgrace." But Father John was determined to win them over and not dwell on what was done to him. He was nervous, but his plan was to show love and concern to everyone. It took years to win their approval. He was never impatient or unkind, but the people were still hostile, eventually coming to love him.

Father John was exonerated after eight years and went back to teach at Kraków. As he was leaving his Church, the once-hostile people followed him for several miles, begging him to stay.

Father John spent the rest of his life as a professor of Sacred Scripture at the university. He was well-liked and often was invited to dinner with nobility. Once he was sitting down to dinner when he saw a beggar walking outside. He stood up and ran out, giving the man the food in his bowl and then went back inside.

This was the philosophy that Father taught his students - "Fight all error, but do it with good humor, patience, kindness, and love. Harshness will damage your own soul and spoil the best cause."

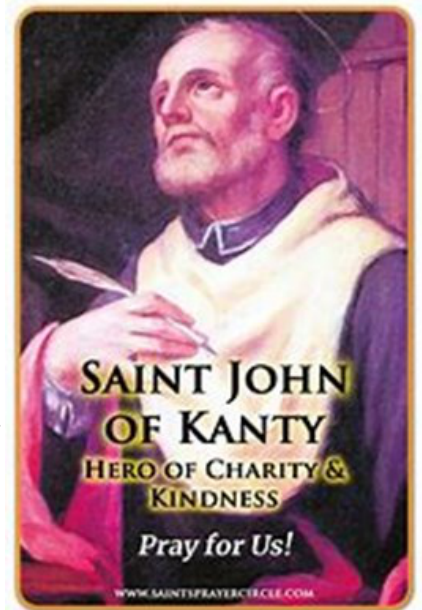

Father John died at the age of eighty three in December 1473. His remains were buried in the Collegiate Church of St. Anne, becoming a popular pilgrimage site. In 1992, he became the patron of the diocese of Bielsko-Żywiec and also for the students.

John Cantius was beatified by Pope Clement X on March 28, 1676. In 1737, Pope Clement XII named him the patron saint of Poland and Lithuania and he was canonized on July 16, 1767 by Pope Clement XIII.

Pope John Paul II had a deep and lifelong devotion to St. John of Kanty, whose feast day is December 23. St. John Kanty is the patron saint of teachers, students, priests and pilgrims.

This is his prayer:

St. John of Kanty, you were unjustly fired from your work. Please pray for those who are jobless or in danger of losing their jobs that they may find work that is fulfilling in every way. Guide us to ways to help those looking for work. Amen.
