A Message from Father Carlos - Un Mensaje de Padre Carlos

My Dear Family of St. Faustina,

With the celebration of the Baptism of Jesus, last Monday we concluded the Christmas season. The voice of the Father still rings and resounds: "You are my beloved Son; I am pleased with you." We have already begun Ordinary Time and in it we are preparing to walk with Jesus, listening to him, in order to continue to become better missionary disciples.

The Word of God for this Second Sunday in Ordinary Time introduces us to Jesus, who called us to follow him. In the Gospel we hear how the first disciples know Jesus and begin to walk with Him; in response to the "Come and see" that He proposes to them. Today, Jesus calls us, invites us to stay with Him, and wants us to continue to call others in His name. What will be your response to the voice of Jesus who says to you, "Come and see"?

God has always called specific people to carry out His plan of salvation, such as Samuel, the last judge of Israel. The first reading tells us that, in the silence of the night, Samuel hears God's call. But it is not until the third time, with the help of Eli, that his response "Here I am" assumes an attitude of acceptance and openness to God: "Speak, Lord, for your servant listens." Samuel became a model of follow-through and engagement. As a prophet, Samuel learns to listen to and treasure God's Word. We, too, have the privilege of hearing God's Word, but what do we do with it?

May we assume, in the face of God's call, an attitude of ACCEPTANCE, of LISTENING. In the face of Jesus' voice, may we welcome and listen to what he proposes and offers us. In order to be able to conform ourselves to Him and to be able to help Him continue His work, a mission that corresponds to us as baptized persons. BLESSED are those who intend to LISTEN to Jesus in order to FOLLOW Him! The history of the Church is the history of God's call and the response of men. Let's make history today! Animo!

St. Faustina... Pray for us.

In Christ,
Father Carlos

Mi querida familia de Santa Faustina,

Con la celebración del Bautismo de Jesús, el lunes pasado dimos por concluido el tiempo de Navidad. Todavía suena y resuena la voz del Padre: "Tú eres mi Hijo amado; yo tengo en ti mis complacencias". Ya comenzamos el Tiempo Ordinario y en él nos disponemos a hacer camino con Jesús, escuchándole, para seguir convirtiéndonos en mejores discípulos misioneros.

La Palabra de Dios de este Segundo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario nos presenta a Jesús, que llamó a seguirle. En el Evangelio escuchamos cómo los primeros discípulos conocen a Jesús y comienzan a andar con Él; en respuesta al "Ven y veras" que Él les propone. Jesús, hoy, nos llama a nosotros, nos invita a quedarnos con Él y quiere que en su nombre sigamos llamando a otros. ¿Cuál será tu respuesta a la voz de Jesús que te dice: "Ven y veras"?

Dios siempre ha llamado a personas concretas para llevar adelante Su plan de salvación, como a Samuel, el último juez de Israel. La primera lectura nos dice que, en el silencio de la noche, Samuel, escucha la llamada de Dios. Pero no es hasta la tercera vez y ayudado por Eli, que su respuesta "Aquí estoy" asume una actitud de acogida y apertura a Dios: "Habla, Señor, que tu siervo escucha". Samuel se convirtió en un modelo de seguimiento y compromiso. Como profeta que es Samuel aprende a escuchar y a atesorar la Palabra de Dios. Nosotros también tenemos el privilegio de oír la Palabra de Dios, pero ¿Qué hacemos con ella?

Ojalá asumamos ante la llamada de Dios una actitud de ACOGIDA, de ESCUCHA. Que, ante la voz de Jesús, acogamos y escuchemos lo que nos propone y ofrece. Para poder así configurarnos con Él y poder ayudarle a continuar Su obra, misión que nos corresponde como bautizados. ¡DICHOSOS quienes se proponen ESCUCHAR a Jesús para SEGUIRLE! La historia de la Iglesia es la historia de la llamada de Dios y de la respuesta de los hombres. ¡Hagamos historia hoy! ¡Ánimo!

Santa Faustina... Ruega por nosotros.

En Cristo,
Padre Carlos

THE SIGN OF THE CROSS is who we are as followers of Christ. Sometimes when something is repeated over and over and over again, it loses its meaning. Such could be the case with the Sign of the Cross. For us as Catholic Christians, it should be a reverent prayer, one to be reflected upon as we make the sign and say the most holy words: “In the Name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, Amen”... (which means, “I Believe.”)

To see a couple of articles on what Pope Francis says about the “Sign of the Cross”, please go to: Pope on Sign of the Cross - Aleteia and/or The sign of the cross is our badge, Pope Francis says | Catholic News Agency

There are two ways you can get the bulletin digitally. The first is to go to our website: News / Weekly Bulletin - St. Faustina Catholic Church - Clermont \(stfaustina.org\) The bulletin is usually posted on Friday morning.

The second is to have it delivered to your email. FIRST, click on the following: St. Faustina Catholic Church | Discover Mass

THEN, click on the “bulletin” button and go down to the “Sign Up Today” button. Fill in your email address, hit submit and your bulletin will be delivered to your email. The cool thing about getting the bulletin digitally is that you can simply “click” on the various links that are in the publication and be taken to the corresponding site.

St. Angela of Foligno

By Marylu Mariniello

Angela was born in 1248 to a wealthy family at Foligno in Umbria, Italy. She was married at an early age and had several children. Her life was full. She loved her family and her social position, especially her grand home and beautiful clothes.

When she was around forty years old, Angela had a vision of St. Francis of Assisi. Then she recognized the emptiness within her, striving to be more devoted to God. From that time on, she began to lead a life dedicated to higher perfection. She went to confession and committed herself to prayer and good works. Three years later her mother died. Soon after her husband and children died.

With her servant Masazuola as her companion, Angela sold her possessions and entered the Third Order of St. Francis in 1291. There she meditated on Christ's crucifixion. She also served the poor of Foligno as a nurse and beggar for their necessities. Then other women joined her and she formed a religious community.

Angela received many mystical revelations, which she dictated to a scribe. She then consulted with her priest, Friar Arnolfo, who advised her to write a book. She called it "Il Libro della Beata Angela da Foligno." This is also known as the "Book of Visions and Instructions."

The reports are contained in a compilation of two works. Angela wrote of some of the temptations she suffered after her conversion, an account of her spiritual progress, known as the Memoriale and expressed her thanks to God for the Incarnation of Jesus. The Memoriale is the first part of two sections of her Libro. The second text is called Instructions. This is composed of thirty-six instructional texts, a note about her death and an epilogue. The texts appear in different orders in different manuscripts. They are not in one correct order. This book and her life earned Angela the title "Teacher of Theologians." She is also considered a great medieval mystic.

Starting in 1296, Angela's fame grew about her sanctity, which caused more men and women to join as tertiaries, under her direction. Later she established a community of other women tertiaries and added to the Rule of the Third Order. The community refused to become an enclosed religious order. Their commitment was to a common life without keeping themselves hidden, so that they could devote their lives to works of charity for everyone.

At Christmas time in 1308, Angela told her friends that she would die shortly.

A few days later, she saw Christ appearing to her, promising to come personally to take her to heaven. Then she died in her sleep on January 3, 1309, with her community surrounding her.

Pope Clement XI beatified Angela on July 11, 1701 and Pope Francis canonized her on October 9, 2013, declaring her a saint by "equivalent canonization", meaning without executing the ordinary judicial process of canonization. This recognized the validity of the long-standing veneration of Blessed Angela.

St. Angela of Foligno is buried at the Church of St. Francis in Foligno. Many people have accredited miracles to her at her tomb.

Her feast day is celebrated on January 8. The community St. Angela founded was not recognized as a religious institute until the twentieth century, but she is still honored as a religious.
