A MESSAGE FROM FATHER CARLOS - UN MENSAJE DE PADRE CARLOS

My Dear Family of St. Faustina,

The message of this Sixth Sunday of Ordinary Time is presented to us, in a framework of liberation and life, but not just any life but the one that Jesus is willing to give us. In the first reading taken from the book of Leviticus, we see all that one suffering from leprosy had to go through. Being close to them was not possible. But Jesus, touching the leper in the Gospel, "defiles himself" in order to be able to present to the sick person the gift of life from God the Father. Once again we see the closeness of Jesus, which always manifests itself above ritual and legal laws. The more we lack to understand and comprehend that God's love is far greater of all social and cultural conditions, ALL.

What a lesson for us, immersed in a world of so many marginalized people and for so many reasons! May we learn more and more from our Master, from Jesus, because our world will appreciate the presence of new and supportive men and women in the style of Jesus, true missionary disciples.

Speaking of solidarity, this weekend it is up to us, as we do every year, to show our solidarity with our Bishop John Noonan. During all Masses we will be presenting Bishop Noonan's call to participate in the 2024 Our Catholic Call campaign. It is part of our responsibility to support the efforts of our diocese whether in local, state, and/or international charities; in addition to the efforts to support all the parishes in our diocese. Let us keep in mind that by supporting the 2024 Catholic Call campaign, we are not only standing in solidarity with the efforts of the Church as a whole, but we are also standing in solidarity with St. Faustina — as we benefit from participating in formation programs, receiving administrative support for our parish, among many other things. For more information and/or to make a donation, visit <https://www.cfocf.org/oca/give/>.

Remember, let us do everything for the "glory of God" as St. Paul suggests in his first letter to the Corinthians this weekend. That will help us bear the witness the world needs of us. Blessed are those who WELCOME the newness of Jesus, for they will be a BLESSING for our world! Animo!

St. Faustina... Pray for us.
Father Carlos

Mi querida familia de Santa Faustina,

El mensaje de este Sexto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario se nos presenta, en un marco de liberación y de vida, pero no cualquier vida sino la que está dispuesto a darnos Jesús. En la primera lectura tomada del libro de Levítico, vemos por todo lo que tenía que pasar uno que sufría de Lepra. Estar cerca de ellos no era posible. Pero Jesús, tocando al leproso del Evangelio, "se mancha" para poder presentarle a aquel enfermo el don de la vida de Dios Padre. Una vez más vemos la cercanía de Jesús, que siempre se manifiesta por encima de leyes rituales y legales. Cuanto más nos falta para entender y comprender que el amor de Dios es mucho más grande de todas las condiciones sociales y culturales, TODAS.

¡Vaya lección para nosotros, inmersos en un mundo de tantas personas marginadas y por tantos motivos! Ojalá aprendamos cada vez mas de nuestro Maestro, de Jesús, porque nuestro mundo agradecerá la presencia de hombres y mujeres nuevos y solidarios al estilo de Jesús, verdaderos discípulos Misioneros.

Hablando de solidaridad, este fin de semana nos corresponde, como todos los años, mostrar nuestra solidaridad a nuestro Obispo John Noonan. Durante todas las Misas estaremos presentando el llamado del Obispo Noonan a participar en la campaña de Nuestro Llamado Católico 2024. Es parte de nuestra responsabilidad apoyar el esfuerzo de nuestra diócesis ya sea en obras de caridad locales, estatales y/o internacionales; además de los esfuerzos de apoyo a todas las parroquias de nuestra diócesis. Tengamos presente que, al apoyar la campaña de Nuestro Llamado Católico 2024, no solo nos hacemos solidarios con los esfuerzos de la Iglesia en su totalidad, sino que también nos hacemos solidarios con St. Faustina — pues nos beneficiamos participando de programas de formación, recibiendo apoyo en aspectos administrativo para nuestra parroquia, entre muchas otras cosas. Para más información y/o para hacer una donación, visiten <https://www.cfocf.org/oca/give/>.

Recordemos, hagamos todo para "Gloria de Dios" como nos sugiere San Pablo en su primera carta a los Corintios de este fin de semana. Eso nos ayudara a dar el testimonio que el mundo necesita de nosotros. ¡Dichosos quienes ACOGEN la novedad de Jesús, porque serán una BENDICIÓN para nuestro mundo! ¡Animo!

Santa Faustina... Ruega por nosotros.
Padre Carlos

EASTER TRIDUUM

Holy Thursday + Good Friday + Holy Saturday + Easter Sunday

"Celebrating the Triduum and the gift of the Paschal Mystery" will be held on Sunday, February 18 through Tuesday, February 20th for the parish's three-day Lenten Mission. All three nights begin at 7:00 pm in the church. The mission is presented by Brother Louis Canter.

On Sunday evening there will be a 75-minute concert of song, prayer and stories focusing on the Gospels from Cycle A of the last Sunday of Lent. Monday features "A Glimpse of Holy Thursday and Good Friday." The topics that will be discussed are prayer, signs, symbols, and purpose of Holy Thursday, and the fulfillment of Jesus' obedience to the Father and its effects for us as a result of Good Friday. Tuesday night's mission conclusion features prayer and the "Unpacking of the Easter Vigil" as we look at each section and how it reveals our Salvation through God's love and mercy.

We invite everyone to join us for this very special Easter Mission.

PARISH MINISTRIES & UPCOMING EVENTS

ST. FAUSTINA GRIEF SUPPORT GROUP — Our next grief support group will begin on Saturday, February 24th, at 1:00 pm in the church. The group will meet every other Saturday (with the exception of one back-to-back) and will end on Saturday, June 22nd.

Our coordinators are trained by the Diocese of Orlando and are here to help you on your journey.

All group meetings are confidential which means...

"WHAT IS SAID IN THE GROUP STAYS IN THE GROUP."

No one should ever grieve alone, let us help you on your journey.

For more information and/or to join, please contact Kelly Mucci at: kmucci@stfaustina.org.

The St. Faustina Bereavement/Consolation/Grief Support Team met on Saturday, January 20th, for their continued education and training which is required for us to perform our ministry. Luis Nieves, Director of Pastoral Ministry for the Diocese of Orlando and Dianne Kelter facilitator for the Diocese of Orlando were the leads for the all day training.

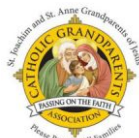

Our next all day training in Mental Health, which is now a requirement, will continue on May 11 at Holy Family Catholic Church in Orlando.

We are hard at work constantly learning to better serve our St. Faustina family. No one should ever grieve alone.

CONGRATULATIONS!!! ST. FAUSTINA PARISHIONERS—Once again you proved what a caring, loving parish we are. Our January 28th blood drive produced 21 pints of "liquid love" helping to save up to 63 lives. Since the drive began in June of 2019, you have contributed 534 pints of blood while saving over 1,602 lives as each donation has the ability to help up to three patients in need.

"THANK YOU!!"

The Catholic Grandparents Association of St Faustina will meet Wednesday, February 21 at 11:00 am in the classroom. The discussion topic will be "Family History ". New members are always welcome. For more information about this ministry, please go to their web page at:

<https://stfaustina.org/ministries/grandparents-ministry-2/>

St. Faustina Memorial Mass Association — is an opportunity to honor loved ones. Every Saturday morning at the 8:00 am Mass, intentions will be for those listed in the Memorial Mass Association. The suggested donation to have your loved one remembered at Mass every Saturday morning, until the end of the year, is $25.00.

A NEW WEB PAGE on our parish website features the names of those honored. Please go to: <https://stfaustina.org/ministries/memorial-mass-association-members/>

For more information on how you can honor your loved one(s), please contact the office during regular business hours, call us at 352-515-9297, or email us at: office@stfaustina.org.

According to the United States Conference of Bishops, Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are obligatory days of fasting and abstinence. Fridays during Lent are obligatory days of abstinence.

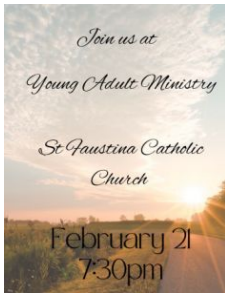

FASTING is understood as having one normal meal during the day. Water and medications do not break the fast. ABSTINENCE is not eating meat or anything with meat by-products (soup broth, for an example).

According to the Catholic Church, individuals who are over the age of 60, along with those who are physically or mentally ill, are not required to fast or abstain from eating meat on days of obligation. The law of fasting applies to those from 18 to 59 years of age, but abstinence from meat, starting at the age of 14, has no upper age limit.

SERVANTS OF GOD (PART 1)

By Marylu Mariniello

The first step to sainthood is to be declared “A Servant of God.” This title is for people who are being investigated on how they led their lives and the good works that they did. They are posthumously declared heroic in virtues as they are being researched.

The next steps are being declared Venerable, Beatification and then Canonization to sainthood. The following is the first half of the list of Americans who are on the way to becoming saints.

Felix de Andreis - an Italian-born Vincentian priest and pioneer in the Missouri territory in the nineteenth century.

Mary Magdalen Bentivoglio - the daughter of an Italian Count, who became a nun and was sent to the US to establish three monastic communities in the nineteenth century.

Black Elk - his name was Heháka Sápa, a Lakota medicine man from the Wyoming Territory who became a Catholic and a catechist.

Thea Bowman - a black Catholic nun, teacher, musician and scholar who served the African American community in Mississippi, Wisconsin and Louisiana.

Simon Bruté - a French-born missionary who became the first Bishop of the Diocese of Vincennes in Indiana in the nineteenth century.

Vincent R. Capodanno - a priest from Staten Island NY serving in Vietnam as a Navy Lieutenant and Chaplain who gave up his life saving another Marine.

Walter Cizek - a priest from Pennsylvania who went to Russia to serve Catholics and spent twenty years in prison for this.

Terence Cooke - a New York native who became a Cardinal and the Archbishop of New York Diocese.

Dorothy Day - an American journalist with a bohemian youth, who was a social activist and an anarchist. A convert, she was part of the Catholic Worker Movement and co-founder of the newspaper, the Catholic Worker.

Joseph Dutton - a Civil War veteran and Union Army lieutenant who became a Catholic. He went to Hawaii to assist Father Damien to work with the people with leprosy and stayed there for the rest of his life, becoming a Brother and founding the Baldwin Home for men and boys.

Cora Evans - a wife and mother, formerly a Mormon, who converted and became a mystic, with visions of Christ and the Blessed Mother.

Edward J. Flanagan - an Irish-born priest who went to Nebraska, serving for forty years, including founding Boys Town, an orphanage and educational complex for troubled youth.

Theodore Foley - a priest and Superior General of the Congregation of the Passion of Jesus also known as the Passionists.

Francis Xavier Ford - a bishop and Maryknoll missionary in China, tortured and killed by the Communist Chinese in 1952.

Demetrius Augustine Gallitzin - a prince from Russia in the nineteenth century who converted and became a priest, serving in Pennsylvania and is known as “The Apostle of the Alleghenies.”

Louis de Goesbriand - a French-born priest who became the first Bishop of the Diocese of Burlington in Vermont in the nineteenth century.

Julia Greeley - an African American philanthropist and Catholic convert who was a slave. She is known as Denver’s “Angel of Charity” because she helped many poor families from her own funds.

John Hardon - an American Jesuit, writer, theologian and teacher. He wrote forty books, including the Catholic Catechism, at the request of Pope Paul VI.

Isaac Hecker - a convert and an American priest who founded the Paulist Fathers.

Leo Heinrichs - a Franciscan priest serving at St. Elisabeth of Hungary Church in Denver. He was shot in 1908 by an anarchist while giving out Communion during Mass.

Next week, the second list will be published for the rest of those who have led a holy life.
