A Message From Father Carlos / Un Mensaje de Padre Carlos

My dear family of St. Faustina,

“In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.” With these words, we always begin our Eucharistic celebration. Also, with this invocation begins our Christian life, our life as children of God: “I baptize you in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.” Our whole life is filled with the presence of God, the center of our faith- the God who is the origin and source of life and love. But it is a mystery that shows him to be close to us instead of distancing God from us. He is so close that he reveals himself to be present and active in us through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Brothers and sisters, we know that the password of the Christian is the “sign of the cross .”For it is in the cross of Christ that the Trinitarian mystery is revealed to us in fullness. It is in his self-giving unto death that Jesus reveals to us the immense and eternal love of the Son for the Father, who loves him and sustains him in his sacrifice until he gives him triumph over evil and death and seats him at his right hand in glory, in the mutual gift of the Holy Spirit, the personification of God’s eternal love.

Each Sunday in our celebration, we say together, “I believe in one God...” and in that prayer, we manifest our faith in the Triune God. We believe in the loving and creative action of the Father, the liberating and saving action of the Son, and the sanctifying and fulfilling action of the Spirit. This weekend, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Holy Trinity, which helps us to contemplate the paschal mystery in its totality, in the action of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. It also reveals to us the being of the Christian image and likeness of a God who is a community of life, a community of love, and a communion of persons. The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity invites us to mature the community of faith, foster unity in charity, and develop the mission in the hope of fullness.

I invite you to reflect this week on the following question: Does the Trinitarian God influence our Christian life? Take heart!

Saint Faustina... Pray for us.

Father Carlos

Welcome to
St. Faustina Catholic Church!

Mi querida familia de Santa Faustina,

“En el nombre del Padre, y del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo”, con estas palabras comenzamos siempre nuestra celebración Eucarística. También con esta invocación comienza nuestra vida Cristiana, nuestra vida de hijos de Dios: “Yo te bautizo en el nombre del Padre, y del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo”. Toda nuestra vida está llena de la presencia de Dios, centro de nuestra fe—del Dios que es origen y fuente de vida y de amor. Pero es misterio que, en lugar de alejar a Dios de nosotros, nos lo manifiesta cercano. Tan cercano que se nos revela presente y activo en nosotros, por Jesucristo, nuestro Señor.

Hermanos y hermanas nosotros sabemos que la contraseña del Cristiano es la “señal de la cruz”. Porque es en la cruz de Cristo donde se nos revela en plenitud el misterio trinitario. Es en su entrega hasta la muerte donde Jesús nos revela el inmenso y eterno amor del Hijo al Padre, que le ama y le sostiene en su sacrificio hasta darle el triunfo sobre el mal y la muerte y sentarlo a Su derecha en la gloria, en la donación mutua del Espíritu Santo, personificación del amor eterno de Dios.

Cada domingo en nuestra celebración juntos decimos, “Creo en un solo Dios...” y en esa oración manifestamos nuestra fe en Dios uno y trino. Creemos en la acción amorosa y creadora del Padre, la acción liberadora y salvadora del Hijo y la acción santificadora y llena de plenitud del Espíritu. Este fin de semana, celebramos la Solemnidad de la Santísima Trinidad que nos ayuda a contemplar el misterio pascual en la totalidad, en la acción del Padre, del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo. También nos revela el ser del Cristiano, imagen y semejanza de un Dios que es comunidad de vida, comunidad de amor, comunión de personas. La Solemnidad de la Santísima Trinidad nos invita a madurar la comunidad de fe, a fomentar la unidad en la caridad y a desarrollar la misión en la esperanza de la plenitud.

Te invito a reflexionar esta semana en la siguiente pregunta: ¿Influye en nuestra vida Cristiana el Dios trinitario? ¡Ánimo!

Santa Faustina... Ruega por nosotros.

OUR MISSION

St. Faustina is a parish family inspired by the Holy Spirit and called to reflect God's Divine Mercy through responsible stewardship of time, talent, and treasure in ministry.

NUESTRA MISION

Santa Faustina es una familia parroquial inspirada por el Espíritu Santo y llamada a reflejar la Divina Misericordia de Dios a través de una administración responsable del tiempo, el talento y el tesoro en el contexto de ministerio.

Offices Closed on May 27 — The St. Faustina Parish Office will be closed this Monday, May 27, in observance of Memorial Day. It will reopen on Tuesday, May 28, at 8:30 a.m.

Oficinas Cerradas el 27 de Mayo — Las Oficinas de la Parroquia de Santa Faustina estarán cerradas este lunes, 27 de mayo, en observancia del Día de los Caídos. Se reabrirá el martes, 28 de mayo, a las 8:30 a.m.

Dear God:

Keep in your mercy those men and women who have died in the cause of freedom and bring them safely into your kingdom of justice and peace.
We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Memorial Day 2024 Día de la Recordación 2024

Querido Dios:

Guarda en tu misericordia a los hombres y mujeres que han muerto por la causa de la libertad
y llévalos sanos y salvos en tu reino de justicia y de paz.
Te lo pedimos por Jesucristo nuestro Señor

PARISH MINISTRIES & UPCOMING EVENTS

Don't Forget to Give Blood This Sunday — Every two seconds, someone in the U.S. needs blood, including your friends, loved ones, and neighbors here in Central Florida. After the 7:30 a.m., 9:30 a.m., and 11:30 a.m. Masses this Sunday, why not walk across the parking lot and give a pint of your blood to the folks in the Big Red Bus? Walk-ins are welcome; each pint will help three patients with their blood-related needs. Thank you for your incredible generosity!

Change to First Friday of the Month Adoration Beginning in June — Due to low turnout, we will no longer have 12-hour first Friday adoration; we will, however, continue our regular first Friday adoration—beginning after 8:00 a.m. mass with exposition and ending with benediction at 10:30 a.m.

Cambio a la adoración del primer viernes de mes a partir de junio — Debido a la escasa participación, ya no tendremos adoración de 12 horas el primer viernes; sin embargo, continuaremos con nuestra adoración habitual del primer viernes, que comienza después de la misa de las 8 de la mañana con la exposición y termina con la bendición a las 10:30 de la mañana.

Join our Knights of Columbus after the 9:30 a.m. Mass for a Memorial Day Celebration and Service — Our Knights of Columbus Chapter 14217 will hold a Memorial Day Celebration and Service on Sunday, May 26, after the 9:30 a.m. Mass. They will hold the service in the Parish Memorial Garden. Please join them in honoring our heroes by placing flags and wreaths in our Memorial Monument of the Unborn.

Please help honor all who gave their last full measure of devotion to our nation.

Únase a nuestros Caballeros de Colón después de la Misa de 9:30 a.m. para una Celebración y Servicio del Día de los Caídos — Nuestros Caballeros de Colón Capítulo 14217 tendrán una Celebración y Servicio del Día de los Caídos el domingo, 26 de mayo, después de la Misa de 9:30 a.m.. El servicio se llevara a cabo en el Jardín Memorial de la Parroquia. Por favor, únase a ellos en honor a nuestros héroes mediante la colocación de banderas y coronas de flores en nuestro Monumento Conmemorativo de los no nacidos. Por favor, ayude a honrar a todos los que dieron su última medida completa de devoción a nuestra nación.

We Need Sacristans and Ushers — We need individuals willing to serve as Sacristans and Ushers at our Masses. Sacristans keep the liturgical items for Mass in order and prepare the Altar for Mass. Ushers welcome people to the Church, help seat them, take and secure the offertory at each Mass, assist with lining parishioners up for Holy Communion, and guard the Body of Christ to ensure its consumption by all who take it. If you feel called to either ministry, don't hesitate to contact Kelly Mucci, Director of Liturgy and Music, at kmucci@stfaustina.org.

Necesitamos Sacristanes y Ujieres — Necesitamos personas dispuestas a servir como Sacristanes y Ujieres en todas nuestras Misas. Los Sacristanes mantienen los artículos litúrgicos para la Misa en orden y preparan el Altar para la Misa. Los Ujieres dan la bienvenida a la gente a la Iglesia, ayudan a sentarlos, toman y aseguran el ofertorio en cada Misa, ayudan a alinear a los feligreses para la Sagrada Comunión, y guardan el Cuerpo de Cristo para asegurar su consumo por todos los que lo toman. Si se siente llamado a cualquiera de estos ministerios, no dude en ponerse en contacto con Kelly Mucci, Directora de Liturgia y Música, en kmucci@stfaustina.org.

St. Joan of Arc

By Marylu Mariniello

Jeanne d'Arc was born in 1412 to a peasant family in Domrémy, France. Her birthday is believed to be January 6. Joan's parents were Jacques d'Arc and Isabelle Romée, who also had three sons and another daughter. Her father was a peasant farmer who owned around fifty acres of land, supplementing his income as a village official. He collected taxes and headed the local watch. As a child, Jeanne did household chores, helped with spinning wool, worked in the fields, and looked after the animals. Her mother was her religious education teacher.

Jeanne's birth occurred during the Hundred Years' War between England and France, which had begun in 1337. The fight was over the status of English territories in France and English claims to the French throne. The English and their allies dominated much of France, including Paris, Bordeaux and Reims.

France was divided politically. French King Charles VI had constant bouts of mental illness and couldn't rule. His brother Louis was the Duke of Orléans and his cousin John the Fearless was the Duke of Burgundy. Both quarreled about ruling France. In 1407, John ordered the assassination of Louis, causing a civil war which devastated the economy. Supporters of the Duke of Burgundy were called "Burgundians." Much of Domrémy was surrounded by pro-Burgundian factions, but most people were loyal to the Armagnac cause, headed by Louis.

By 1419, the war had totally affected the area. In 1425, Domrémy was attacked and their cattle were stolen which led villagers to see that the English had to be expelled from France to achieve peace. Joan had her first vision after this. Charles of Orléans was the Dauphin, the heir apparent. He succeeded his father as Duke at the age of thirteen and was placed in the custody of Bernard, Count of Armagnac. Charles then became the heir to the throne and was associated with the Armagnacs.

In 1428, Joan asked to see Charles. She said that she was guided by visions of St. Michael the Archangel, St. Margaret of Antioch, and St. Catherine of Alexandria, who told her that she needed to help Charles save France from an English invasion. She was only sixteen, but Charles could see her devotion and goodness. He sent Joan to Orléans in the relief army. She arrived there in April of 1429. Nine days later, the English Army gave up the siege. She then wanted to pursue the English at the Loire Campaign. This gave way to the victory at Patay, which allowed the French to advance on to Reims. With Joan beside him, Charles' armies expelled the English and Burgundians from the Loire Valley, taking back Troyes and liberating Reims, the traditional coronation site for French monarchs. Here, Charles was crowned King of France.

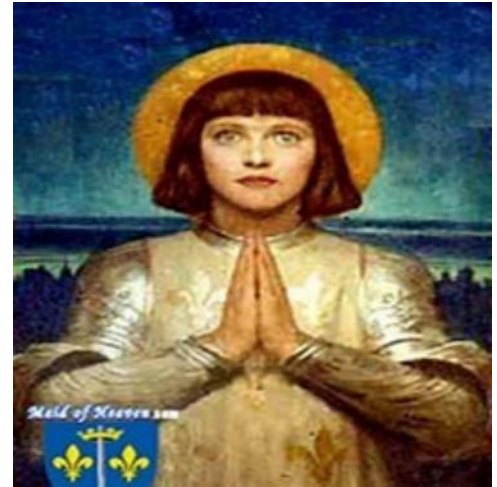

After the coronation, Joan was unsuccessful at the siege of Paris in 1429 and then failed to capture La Charité. These defeats caused everyone to lose faith in her.

In 1430, Joan organized volunteers to save Compiègne, but was captured on May 23 by Burgundian troops, who were the French allies of the English. She tried to escape, but was eventually brought to the British camp.

Bishop Pierre Cauchon oversaw her trial regarding accusations of heresy, which included charges of blasphemy because she wore men's clothes, acted upon visions that were considered demonic, and for refusing to align her words and actions to the judgment of the Church. For this, Joan was declared guilty and burned at the stake on May 30, 1431, when she was nineteen.

In 1456, an inquisitorial court reinvestigated Joan's trial. Her verdict was overturned, and the court declared that her trial was overridden by deceit and procedural errors. Since this time, Joan has been revered as a martyr, viewed as an obedient daughter of the Church and an early feminist, who represented freedom and independence. She became the national symbol of France after the French Revolution, declared by Napoleon in 1830.

St. Joan of Arc was canonized in 1920 and two years later was declared the patron saint of France. Her feast day is May 30.
