A Message From Father Carlos / Un Mensaje de Padre Carlos

Mi querida familia de Santa Faustina,

Hoy celebramos la Solemnidad de Pentecostés, el gran regalo que nuestro Señor Jesucristo hace a la humanidad, el don del Espíritu Santo. El día de Pentecostés, el Espíritu Santo se derrama sobre los Apóstoles, les enciende el alma y los convierte en luz para el mundo. Y con esa infusión del Espíritu Santo nace nuestra Iglesia.

En la primera lectura San Lucas nos relata la venida del Espíritu Santo en el contexto de la fiesta judía de pentecostés. Este acontecimiento representa el punto de partida de la misión universal de la Iglesia. Pablo en su carta a los Corintios deja ver el ideal de una comunidad, que ha de reflejar la unidad dentro de la diversidad de dones y carismas que el Espíritu Santo entrega a sus miembros. Y, en el Santo Evangelio vemos el momento en que los discípulos reciben de Jesús el Espíritu Santo y con él la gran misión como Iglesia de predicar la Buena Nueva en todo tiempo y lugar.

El Espíritu Santo, guía, guio y guiará a la Iglesia y, al igual que a los discípulos de entonces, nosotros también somos enviados a proclamar las maravillas de Dios. De eso no tenemos dudas. Tenemos que ser agradecidos por el don del Espíritu Santo que el Señor nos envía. Pidámosle nos llene siempre de su Espíritu. Pidamos a Dios siga derramando sus dones a toda su Iglesia pero de manera especial aquí en Santa Faustina, Clermont, Florida, USA. ¡Animo!

Santa Faustina... Ruega por nosotros.
Padre Carlos

My dear family of St. Faustina,

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of Pentecost, the great gift that our Lord Jesus Christ gives to humanity, the gift of the Holy Spirit. On the day of Pentecost, the Holy Spirit is poured out on the Apostles, enkindles their souls and turns them into light for the world. And with this infusion of the Holy Spirit our Church is born.

In the first reading, St. Luke recounts the coming of the Holy Spirit in the context of the Jewish feast of Pentecost. This event represents the starting point of the universal mission of the Church. Paul, in his letter to the Corinthians, gives us a glimpse of the ideal of a community, which is to reflect unity within the diversity of gifts and charisms that the Holy Spirit gives to its members. And, in the Holy Gospel we see the moment when the disciples receive from Jesus the Holy Spirit and with him the great mission as Church to preach the Good News in every time and place.

The Holy Spirit guides, guided, and will continue to guide the Church and, like the disciples of that time, we too are sent to proclaim the wonders of God. Of that we have no doubt. We must be grateful for the gift of the Holy Spirit that the Lord sends us. Let us ask him to fill us always with his Spirit. Let us ask God to continue pouring his gifts to all his Church but in a special way here in Santa Faustina, Clermont, Florida, USA. Cheer up!

Saint Faustina... Pray for us.
Father Carlos

Our parish's bi-monthly Blood Drive, set for next Sunday, May 26, from 7:30 a.m. until 1:00 p.m., will celebrate five years of this important ministry. The Big Red Bus will be parked right outside our front entrance. Since the drive began in June of 2019, you have contributed 556 pints of blood while saving over 1,668 lives, as each donation can help up to three patients in need. You will receive a Wellness Check and a gift from the highly-trained OneBlood staff member on board. While 90% of our donors are walk-ups, you can reserve your space by making an appointment at: https://donor.oneblood.org/donor/schedules/drive_schedule/1421843 As always, thank you for your willingness to help others through your donation.

COLECTA DE SANGRE ANIVERSARIO el Proxima Domingo — ¿Dónde se ha metido el tiempo? La colecta de sangre bimensual de nuestra parroquia, fijada para el próximo domingo 26 de mayo, de 7:30 a.m. a 1:00 p.m., celebraremos cinco años de este importante ministerio. El Gran Autobús Rojo estará estacionado justo afuera de nuestra entrada principal. Our Usher Ministry Seeks New Members — The Ushers' Ministry is seeking new members, particularly members who can serve as Ushers at the 4:00 p.m. Vigil Mass on Saturdays. Ushers welcome people within the Church, assist in seating parishioners, take and secure the offertory at each Mass, and assist parishioners in lining up to receive the Holy Eucharist. They also have the critical duty of guarding the Body of Christ to ensure that it is consumed by each who receives it. If you feel called to serve in this ministry, don't hesitate to contact Kelly Mucci, Director of Liturgy and Music, at kmucci@stfaustina.org.

Nuestro Ministerio de Ujieres busca nuevos miembros — El Ministerio de Ujieres está buscando nuevos miembros, particularmente miembros que puedan servir como Ujieres en la Misa de Vigilia de las 4:00 p.m. los sábados. Los ujieres dan la bienvenida a la gente dentro de la Iglesia, ayudan a sentar a los feligreses, toman y aseguran el ofertorio en cada Misa, y ayudan a los feligreses a formarse para recibir la Sagrada Eucaristía. También tienen el deber crítico de custodiar el Cuerpo de Cristo para asegurar que sea consumido por cada uno de los que lo reciben. Si usted se siente llamado a servir en este ministerio, no dude en ponerse en contacto con Kelly Mucci, Director de Liturgia y Música, en kmucci@stfaustina.org.

St. Faustina Sacristans' Ministry Needs Members — We have a critical need for individuals willing to serve as Sacristans at all of our Masses. The Sacristan helps the priests focus on the ministerial aspect of their priesthood and keeps the liturgical items for Mass in order. It is one of the oldest liturgical roles in the Church. If you feel called to be part of this ministry, please get in touch with Kelly Mucci, Director of Liturgy and Music, at kmucci@stfaustina.org or 352-515-9297 x. 102.

El Ministerio de Sacristanes de Santa Faustina Necesita Miembros — Tenemos una necesidad crítica de personas dispuestas a servir como Sacristanes en todas nuestras Misas. El Sacristán ayuda a los sacerdotes a centrarse en el aspecto ministerial de su sacerdocio y mantiene los elementos litúrgicos para la Misa en orden. Es una de las funciones litúrgicas más antiguas de la Iglesia. Si usted se siente llamado a ser parte de este ministerio, por favor póngase en contacto con Kelly Mucci, Director de Liturgia y Música, en kmucci@stfaustina.org o 352-515-9297 x. 102.

PARISH MINISTRIES & UPCOMING EVENTS

A Big Thank You From Our Caring Crafters! — The Caring Crafters would like to thank those who supported celebrating our first anniversary under our new tent. We were fortunate to have beautiful weather and had an excellent turnout. We hope you got a chance to check out our poster and display showing our progress in our first year. It was amazing, and the crafters were very busy all year. We received a total of $1,535.00 in sales and donations.

Because of your purchasing our items and donations, we can buy the supplies we need to handmake all our blankets and prayer shawls for our ministries and numerous items for the community organizations that we serve. This year's total was 1,379 items going to three ministries, six organizations, and our fairs.

This coming year, we would like to support our current ministries and organizations and reach out to other groups where we can be of service. We could make many items for those in need to show we care and that they are not alone or give them comfort or some gift of joy. We have many ideas, and we will keep you posted on our progress.

Remember, you are always welcome to join us on the second Wednesday of each month from 10:00 a.m. to noon in the Church classrooms.

Thank you again for your support, whether monetary donations or prayers for our success. We are truly blessed with your generosity.

¡Muchas gracias de parte de nuestros Caring Crafters! — Los Caring Crafters quieren agradecer a todos aquellos que apoyaron la celebración de nuestro primer aniversario bajo nuestra nueva carpa. Tuvimos la suerte de contar con un tiempo estupendo y una excelente asistencia. Esperamos que hayan tenido la oportunidad de ver nuestro póster y la exhibición que muestra nuestro progreso en nuestro primer año. Fue increíble, y los artesanos estuvieron muy ocupados todo el año. Recibimos un total de $1,535.00 en ventas y donaciones.

Debido a su compra de nuestros artículos y donaciones, podemos comprar los suministros que necesitamos para hacer a mano todas nuestras mantas y chales de oración para nuestros ministerios y numerosos artículos para las organizaciones de la comunidad que servimos. El total de este año fue de 1.379 artículos destinados a tres ministerios, seis organizaciones y nuestras ferias.

Este próximo año, nos gustaría apoyar a nuestros ministerios y organizaciones actuales y llegar a otros grupos en los que podamos ser útiles. Podríamos hacer muchos artículos para los necesitados para mostrarles que nos importan y que no están solos o darles consuelo o algún regalo de alegría. Tenemos muchas ideas y les mantendremos informados de nuestros progresos.

Recuerde, siempre es bienvenido a unirse a nosotros el segundo miércoles de cada mes de 10:00 a.m. a mediodía en las aulas de la Iglesia.

Gracias de nuevo por su apoyo, ya sean donaciones monetarias u oraciones por nuestro éxito. Estamos verdaderamente bendecidos con su generosidad.

St. Bede the Venerable

By Marylu Mariniello

St. Bede the Venerable was an Anglo-Saxon theologian, chronologist, and historian. His most famous work is the Historia Ecclesiastica Gentis Anglorum - "Ecclesiastical History of the English People," which was an important source regarding the path of the conversion of the Anglo-Saxon tribes to Christianity. The use of the "AD" in dates, known as Anno Domini, became popular from the works of St. Bede.

Bede was born in the year 673 near the English town of Jarrow in the Kingdom of Northumbria, which is present day northern England and eastern Scotland. When he was still a young child, his parents sent him to a monastery founded by a Benedictine abbot. Years later the abbot was canonized as St. Benedict Biscop.

The monastery had an extensive library, which prompted Bede to become an avid reader and creative writer. After a while, he returned to Jarrow to study with an abbot named Ceolfrid, a friend of Benedict Biscop, and also with other monks. Here Bede learned about scripture, theology, sacred music, poetry and Greek.

The teachers saw that Bede demonstrated a strong devotion to prayer and study. Even though he was only nineteen, Ceolfrid decided that Bede should be ordained a deacon, which was performed by another Benedictine monk and future saint, Bishop John of Beverley. Bede studied for eleven more years, entering the priesthood at the age of thirty. This was the beginning of the eighth century. Then he celebrated daily Mass for the members of the Benedictine community, while he also worked at the farm, baking and doing other chores at the monastery.

Bede's priorities were prayer, fasting and charitable giving. He felt that all other works were of no value if there was no love of God and neighbor. Still he had amazing intellectual gifts, which he used to learn a wide range of subjects. All of this added to his Christian values.

He was happy as a monk and declined a request to become the Abbot. He was more interested in writing and produced around forty five books primarily about theology, the Bible, science, literature and history. While he was writing, Bede also taught hundreds of students at the monastery and the adjoining school, which became well-known throughout Britain.

He was recognized for his spiritual and intellectual gifts. His writings on scripture were considered extremely authoritative, triggering a Church council to order them to be publicly read in English churches.

Many illustrious members of English society made pilgrimages to his monastery to seek his guidance. Pope Sergius personally invited Bede to Rome for an audience.

Bede was humble and not affected by these honors, so he chose not to visit Rome or travel a large distance from his Monastery of Saints Peter and Paul in Jarrow. He was this way for his entire adult life. The world came to see him. He warmly welcomed all visitors, according to the Benedictine tradition of hospitality.

He wrote books that were copied for centuries and still are read today. Bede is one of the last Western Christian writers to be part of the Church Fathers. He completed his Historia Ecclesiastica in 732. This was divided into five books, recording events in Britain from the time of Julius Caesar to the arrival of St. Augustine of Canterbury in Kent in 597.

He knew that love, more than learning, was his purpose in life, saying, "It is better to be a stupid and uneducated brother who, working at the good things he knows, merits life in heaven, than to be one who – though being distinguished for his learning in the Scriptures, or even holding the place of a teacher – lacks the bread of love."

Bede died on the vigil of the feast day of the Ascension in 735, shortly after completing an Anglo-Saxon translation of the Gospel of John. He was canonized in 1899 and declared a Doctor of the Church by Pope Leo XIII that same year.

St. Bede's feast day is May 25. The English priest, monk, and scholar is also known as "the Venerable Bede." This is for his personal holiness and intellectual brilliance.
