A Message From Father Carlos / Un Mensaje de Padre Carlos

My dear family of St. Faustina,

In this weekend's Gospel, Jesus feeds the hungry crowd. He wants us, his beloved disciples of all times, to understand that just as important as feeding ourselves is feeding those who are hungry and those who do not have enough to maintain the human dignity for which God created us.

The multiplication of the loaves is a miracle mentioned six times in the four Gospels. John, the one we read this weekend, proposes two assertions: the request for bread and the identification of the bread with the person of Christ. If something distinguishes us, it is the Eucharist, the shared banquet. Jesus compared the kingdom of God to a wedding feast, a sign of abundance, good and free. This fact was deeply engraved among the followers of Jesus, and all the evangelists recount it.

As we see in the Gospel, the disciples try to ignore the people's needs and tell Jesus: "Send them away; let them go to the villages and buy themselves something to eat." These words show their lack of solidarity. Let everyone provide for himself. "You give them something to eat," Jesus tells them. The group of disciples has to take care of these needy people. Brothers and sisters, the solution does not lie in money but in solidarity. With money, only those who have it eat. For all to eat, it is necessary to share what there is. And that is the Great Miracle.

"Here is a boy who has five loaves and two fish." It is not much, but they are available to all. Jesus pronounces the "Thanksgiving" to God and puts them in a new dimension. They no longer belong exclusively to the boy or the disciples; they are for the common good. They are a gift from God.

Brothers and sisters, what we are and have undoubtedly come from God, which He uses for the common good. As a church, we must examine our consciences and see if we are good stewards. Do we let God multiply what we are and have? Do we put it at the service of others? Do we walk together towards the Church that God wants us to be?

Courage!

Saint Faustina... Pray for us.

In Christ,

Father Carlos

Mi querida familia de Santa Faustina,

En el evangelio de este fin de semana, Jesús alimenta a la muchedumbre hambrienta. Él quiere que nosotros, sus discípulos amados de todos los tiempos, comprendamos que tan importante como alimentarse es dar de comer a quienes tienen hambre, a quienes no tienen lo suficiente para mantener la dignidad humana, para lo que hemos sido creados por Dios.

La multiplicación de los panes es un milagro mencionado seis veces por los cuatro evangelios. Juan, que es el que leemos este fin de semana, nos propone dos aseveraciones: la petición de pan y la identificación del pan con la persona de Cristo. Si hay algo que nos distingue a nosotros es la Eucaristía, el banquete compartido. Jesús comparó el reino de Dios a un banquete de bodas, signo de abundancia, buena y gratis. Este hecho quedó muy grabado entre los seguidores de Jesús y lo narran todos los evangelistas.

Como vemos en el evangelio, los discípulos tratan de desentenderse de la necesidad de la gente y le dicen a Jesús: "Despídelos, que se vayan a las aldeas, y que se compren algo de comer". Estas palabras muestran su falta de solidaridad. Que cada uno se procure su sustento. "Denles ustedes de comer," les dice Jesús. Es el grupo de discípulos el que se tiene que preocupar de esta gente necesitada. Hermanos y hermanas, la solución no está en el dinero sino en la solidaridad. Con dinero, sólo comen los que lo tienen. Para que todos coman es necesario compartir lo que hay. Y ese es el Gran Milagro.

"Aquí hay un muchacho que tiene cinco panes y dos peces". No es mucho, pero allí están a disposición de todos. Jesús pronuncia la «Acción de Gracias» a Dios y los pone en una nueva dimensión. Ya no pertenecen en exclusiva ni al muchacho ni a los discípulos, son para el bien común. Son un regalo de Dios.

Hermanos y hermanas, de lo que somos y tenemos, que sin duda viene de Dios, Él se sirve para el bien común. Nosotros como iglesia tenemos que hacer un examen de conciencia y ver si estamos siendo buenos administradores. ¿Dejamos que Dios multiplique lo que somos y tenemos? ¿Lo ponemos al servicio de los demás? ¿Caminamos juntos hacia la Iglesia que Dios quiere que seamos?

¡Ánimo!

Santa Faustina... Ruega por nosotros.

En Cristo,

Padre Carlos

El Consejo de Caballeros de Colón de Santa Faustina nombró a Ángel y Carmen García como Junio, 2024 "FAMILIA DEL MES".

Ángel y Carmen García vinieron de la Iglesia Católica del Santísimo Sacramento y se mudaron a Santa Faustina en 2007. Tan pronto como comenzó la misa en español, Ángel García sirvió como sacristán, lector, Ministro Eucarístico de la Sagrada Comunión (EMHC), y ujier. También participó en otros ministerios en español.

Carmen García es miembro del coro español y siempre ayuda a vender empanadas y otros alimentos después de la misa en español y otras actividades de la iglesia. Se puede contar con ella, ya que siempre está dispuesta a ayudar. Carmen también limpia la rectoría desde que el P. Ramón era nuestro párroco y ahora para el Padre Carlos. Aparte de limpiar, también es cocinera, ya que cocinó comidas para el Padre Ramón y actualmente para nuestro querido párroco, el Padre Carlos. Ángel y Carmen son muy queridos por nuestra comunidad parroquial.

Los criterios para la Familia del Mes son los siguientes: Feligreses de Santa Faustina registrados, activos en la vida parroquial (ministerios) y católicos practicantes. Los candidatos pueden ser solteros, viudos o matrimonios.

Knights of Columbus St. Faustina Council named Angel and Carmen Garcia as June, 2024 "FAMILY OF THE MONTH" awardee.

Angel and Carmen Garcia came from Blessed Sacrament Catholic Church and moved to St. Faustina in 2007. As soon as the Spanish mass started, Angel Garcia served as sacristan, reader, Eucharistic Minister of the Holy Communion (EMHC), and usher. He also participated in other Spanish ministries.

Carmen Garcia is a member of the Spanish choir and always helps sell empanadas and other food after the Spanish mass and other church activities. You can depend on her, as she is always willing to help. Carmen also cleans the rectory and has done so since Fr. Ramon was our parish priest and now for Fr. Carlos. Aside from cleaning, she is also a chef, as she cooked meals for Fr. Ramon and currently for our beloved pastor, Fr. Carlos. Angel and Carmen are very well-loved by our parish community.

The criteria for the Family of the Month are the following: a Registered St. Faustina Parishioner who is active in parish life (ministries) and a practicing Catholic. Candidates can be single, widowed, or married.

Empezando por la izquierda, el ex Gran Caballero Ed Rabelas, el P. Juan Osorno, Carmen y Angel Garcia y el nuevo Gran Caballero Jim Odell.
