PASTOR'S MESSAGE / MENSAJE DEL PASTOR

Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men." When they brought their boats to the shore, they left everything and followed him. (Lk. 5:11)

In today's Gospel, God used Peter's boat to make a great catch - so many fish that the boats could easily have sunk under the weight of them. Jesus eases Peter's guilt for his doubt by telling him and us, Do not be afraid.

Jesus is telling all of us to put out into the deep water for a great catch. It is safer by the shore, and that is where we are most comfortable, but with greater risks come greater rewards. Like Isaiah, Paul and Peter, we may have excuses for why we are incapable of fulfilling God's will for us, and plenty of reasons why God should ask someone else. Yet history shows, and our experience has taught us, that God can cover all of our weaknesses with his strength, and can bring forth a great catch when we say yes to his will, listen to his word, and busy ourselves doing his work.

In every way, these men experienced the intensity and immensity of the power of God, and it made them feel small and unworthy. God's mercy helped them to realize that he who is so intense and immense is also very intimately connected with each one of us, and the message is always the same: "Put out into the deep" and "Do not be afraid."

But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace to me has not been ineffective. Indeed, I have toiled harder than all of them; not I, however, but the grace of God that is with me. (1Cor 15:10)

* * * * *

Jesús dijo a Simón: "No temas, desde ahora serás pescador de hombres." Llevaron a tierra las barcas y, dejándolo todo, le siguieron. (Lc. 5:11)

En el evangelio de hoy, Dios usó la barca de Pedro para hacer una gran pesca, habian tantos peces que las barcas podrían haberse hundido fácilmente por el peso. Jesús alivia la culpa de Pedro por su duda diciéndole a él y a nosotros: "No tengas miedo".

Jesús nos está diciendo a todos que salgamos a las aguas profundas para una gran pesca. Es más seguro en la orilla, y ahí es donde nos sentimos más cómodos, pero con mayores riesgos, vienen mayores recompensas. Como Isaías, Pablo y Pedro, podemos tener excusas de por qué somos incapaces de cumplir la voluntad de Dios para nosotros, y muchas razones por las cuales Dios debería pedirselo a otra persona. Sin embargo, la historia muestra, y nuestra experiencia nos ha enseñado, que Dios puede cubrir todas nuestras debilidades con su fuerza, y puede producir una gran pesca cuando decimos que sí a su voluntad, escuchemos su palabra y ocupémonos en hacer su trabajo.

En todos los sentidos, estos hombres experimentaron la intensidad e inmensidad del poder de Dios, y los hizo sentir pequeños e indignos. La misericordia de Dios les ayudó a darse cuenta de que Él, que es tan intenso e inmenso, también está muy íntimamente conectado con cada uno de nosotros, y el mensaje es siempre el mismo: "Remar mar adentro" y "No temas."

Mas, por la gracia de Dios, soy lo que soy, y la gracia de Dios no ha sido estéril en mí. Antes bien, he trabajado más que todos ellos. Pero no yo, sino la gracia de Dios que está conmigo. (1 Cor 15:10)

OUR LADY OF LOURDES

By Marylu Mariniello

We celebrate the feast day of Our Lady of Lourdes on February 11, remembering that the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to a young French peasant girl, Bernadette Soubirous. These apparitions began on February 11, 1858 and ended on July 16 of that year.

Bernadette Soubirous was born in Lourdes, France in 1844 to a poor family. She was the oldest of nine children, suffering from chronic asthma. At the age of fourteen, she was out with her sister and a friend looking for firewood when she saw a vision of a woman in a cave near the Gave River. This was the first of eighteen times that Bernadette would see the woman, whom she describe as "lovelier than I have ever seen." The woman wore a white dress and held a rosary. Bernadette saw the lady make the Sign of the Cross, so she knelt down, took out her rosary and began to pray. The woman signaled for Bernadette to approach, but she hesitated and the vision disappeared. Both her sister and friend saw nothing, so Bernadette described the woman and said that they shouldn't tell anyone. But then she went home and told her mother that a "Lady" spoke to her in the cave of Massabielle. Bernadette went back to the grotto the next week and saw the woman again, but still didn't know who she was. On her third trip, a few adults accompanied her on February 18, but no one saw the vision except Bernadette. The woman in white then asked Bernadette to return every day for two weeks.

Soon Bernadette was met with controversy and opposition. Church and civil officials interrogated her with animosity and some thought that she was crazy, but most of the local people believed her and went to the grotto while Bernadette kept seeing the beautiful woman. One day, Our Lady told Bernadette to drink from a fountain in the grotto. There was only dirt there, but Bernadette started digging with her hands and suddenly muddy spring water came bubbling out, which had healing powers. On February 27, Bernadette discovered that the water was now clear. Crowds continued to come to the grotto and saw this change. A woman with a paralyzed arm was cured at the water, which was the first approved miracle. Our Lady told Bernadette "Go, tell the priests to bring people here in procession and have a chapel built at the site of the grotto and spring."

Eventually, the Blessed Mother said that she was the "Immaculate Conception." That is when the local bishop acknowledged the visions. It took four years, but on January 18, 1862, Bishop Bertrand-Sévère Laurence of Tarbes then validated the veneration of the Blessed Virgin Mary in Lourdes.

Bernadette saw Our Lady two more times in 1858 after her initial visits. The first was the Wednesday after Easter and then again on the feast day of Our Lady of Mount Carmel on July 16.

As word of the apparitions spread, many people came to Lourdes and the springs for healing and to renew their faith. A basilica was built upon the rock of the Massabielle. In 1876, it was consecrated as the "Church of the Rosary."

Today, the Sanctuary of Our Lady of Lourdes is one of the most visited shrines in the world, with millions making pilgrimages. It is estimated that over 200 million people have visited Lourdes. There has been sixty nine approved miracles at the shrine since 1862, with one occurring in May, 1989 which was investigated thoroughly and approved in July of 2013.

Bernadette became a nun in 1866 and died in Nevers from tuberculosis at the age of thirty five. She was beatified on June 14, 1925 and canonized by Pope Pius XI on December 8, 1933. Her feast day is April 16.

St. Bernadette is the patron saint of illness, people ridiculed for their piety, poverty, shepherds, shepherdesses and Lourdes, France.
