PASTOR'S MESSAGE / MENSAJE DEL PASTOR

He said to them, "The kings of the Gentiles lord it over them and those in authority over them are addressed as 'Benefactors'; but among you it shall not be so. Rather, let the greatest among you be as the youngest, and the leader as the servant. (Luke 22:25)

In his unwavering acceptance of God's plan for him, Christ calls us to imitate him. On this Palm Sunday, we turn our eyes and open our hearts to contemplate the heart of our faith: Christ died and rose again in glory so we could know the fullness of his love - now and forever. God's incomprehensible love for us entered the world as a tiny vulnerable infant and grew into a man who fearlessly, humbly, and selflessly accepted God's plan for him.

We respond to Jesus' suffering and death by imitating him. We are to remember who we are and what our mission is: We are children of God destined to live life to the fullest. We are his disciples called to spread the Good News of his love and mercy. In this Holy Week, we can reflect on what this means for our lives. It may mean putting the needs of others before our own, or being welcoming to those we don't know well. It may mean emptying ourselves of pride or resentment to heal broken relationships, including forgiving others, even if we have suffered because of their actions.

In the coming week, let us walk with Christ each day to grow in our ability to imitate him in love and humility. And as we prepare to come to the table where Jesus offers himself again, we pray for the grace that will strengthen and sustain us on that walk.

Christ Jesus, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God something to be grasped. Rather, he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, coming in human likeness; and found human in appearance, he humbled himself, becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. (Phil. 2:6-7)

* * * * *

Les dijo: "Los reyes de los gentiles dominan sobre ellos y los que tienen autoridad sobre ellos se dirigen como 'Benefactores'; pero entre vosotros no será así. Más bien, que el más grande entre ustedes sea como el más joven, y el líder como el siervo. (Lucas 22:25)

En su aceptación inquebrantable del plan de Dios para él, Cristo nos llama a imitarlo. En este Domingo de Ramos, volvemos los ojos y abrimos nuestros corazones para contemplar el corazón de nuestra fe: Cristo murió y resucitó en gloria para que pudiéramos conocer la plenitud de su amor, ahora y para siempre. El amor incomprensible de Dios por nosotros entró en el mundo como un pequeño bebé vulnerable y se convirtió en un hombre que, sin miedo, humilde y desinteresadamente aceptó el plan de Dios para él.

Respondemos al sufrimiento y la muerte de Jesús imitándolo. Debemos recordar quiénes somos y cuál es nuestra misión: Somos hijos de Dios destinados a vivir la vida al máximo. Somos sus discípulos llamados a difundir la Buena Nueva de su amor y misericordia. En esta Semana Santa, podemos reflexionar sobre lo que esto significa para nuestras vidas. Puede significar poner las necesidades de los demás antes que las nuestras, o ser acogedores con aquellos que no conocemos bien. Puede significar vaciarnos de orgullo o resentimiento para sanar las relaciones rotas, incluso perdonar a los demás, incluso si hemos sufrido debido a sus acciones.

En la próxima semana, caminemos con Cristo cada día para crecer en nuestra capacidad de imitarlo en amor y humildad. Y mientras nos preparamos para venir a la mesa donde Jesús se ofrece de nuevo, oramos por la gracia que nos fortalecerá y sostendrá en ese caminar.

Cristo Jesús, aunque estaba en la forma de Dios, no consideraba que la igualdad con Dios fuera algo a lo que agarrarse. Más bien, se vació a sí mismo, tomando la forma de un esclavo, viniendo a semejanza humana; y encontrado humano en apariencia, se humilló a sí mismo, haciéndose obediente hasta el punto de la muerte, incluso la muerte en una cruz. (Fil. 2:6-7)

THIS WEEK'S LENTEN PRAYER

Loving God,

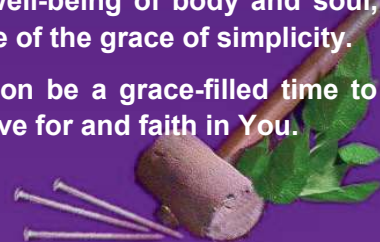

During the sacred season of Lent, bring me closer to you. Prepare a place in my home and heart for silence and solitude, so that I may re-discover the grace of a prayer-full life.

Enlarge my heart so that I give to those in need and, in so doing, re-discover the grace of gratitude and generosity.

Help me to fast from those things that threaten the well-being of body and soul, and remind me of the grace of simplicity.

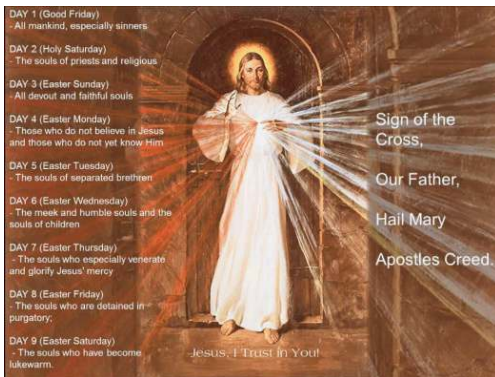

May this season be a grace-filled time to rekindle my love for and faith in You.

Amen.

PALM SUNDAY

Palm Sunday begins Holy Week for Christians. It is the last Sunday in the Lenten season, one week before Easter. This year Palm Sunday falls on April 10. Palms, which are blessed, are given out to all attending Mass, commemorating the day. The formal name for this feastday is Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion.

Jesus went to different towns, performed many miracles, curing many people with different afflictions and taught crowds with parables that they could understand. All of this contributed to his popularity.

When Christ came to Jerusalem riding on a donkey, people spread their garments on the ground and palm branches were placed in His path, which were a sign of devotion and admiration from the people. As He entered the city, the people of Jerusalem proclaimed Christ the King, as they chanted "Hosanna to the Son of David; Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!"

The irony was that while He was popular with the ordinary people, the elites hated Jesus and plotted to kill Him because of this admiration. Then later the same common crowds would agree with the plotters to end Christ's life.

This entry to Jerusalem is mentioned in all of the four Gospels.

Holy Week brings Holy Thursday, the Last Supper. After the meal, Judas betrayed Christ by telling the haters where He was. This led to Good Friday, when He was killed.

The Palm Sunday Mass is long, with the gospel about the Passion of the Lord. At this time, everyone joins in reading the Passion out loud. The Priest, narrator and congregation all speak their own roles. This year, the passion is according to St. Luke.

The words are intense because the congregation is saying the words of the common crowd at Jesus' time. This crowd welcomed Christ and then later condemned Him by saying "Crucify him." They asked for the release of Barabbas, "a notorious prisoner" and the death of Jesus. Both Barabbas and Jesus were charged with the crime of treason against Rome, with crucifixion as the means of death.

There was a Passover custom where the prevailing ruler could commute the sentence of one prisoner. At this time, the governor was Pontius Pilate.

When he offered the choice to the crowd, they chose Jesus to die. They also said "Aha! You who would destroy the temple and rebuild it in three days, save yourself by coming down from the cross."

We learn that St. Peter betrayed his best friend three times, as predicted by Christ. Both Peter and Judas were disloyal to Christ, but unlike Judas, Peter repented, was forgiven by Jesus and became the first Pope. Judas never asked for forgiveness, feeling guilty and committing suicide. His thirty pieces of silver went to the building of a potter's field "as a burial place for foreigners." This is described in Matthew 27:3-10.

The Palm Sunday Gospel gives us a sad day, but then we know that Christ rose from the dead to save all of us. So, sadness on Palm Sunday and happiness on Easter Sunday.

Faith is a gift from God. Many in that crowd did believe, while others did not. This is the same for people today.
