Pastor's Message / Mensaje del Pastor

Jesus said to him, I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. (Jn 14:6)

With these words, our Lord makes it clear that he is the only redeemer of the world. Through his life, death, and resurrection, Jesus Christ - the only begotten Son of God - has defeated for us the snares of sin and death and brought us back to the Father. We hear these words of Jesus as part of his conversation with his Apostles at the Last Supper. In this teaching moment, the Lord reveals his unique relationship to God the Father. Jesus is actually unpacking the nature of the Holy Trinity to the Apostles, but they will not begin to grasp it until the Holy Spirit brings them to a deeper understanding after Pentecost.

Because our faith teaches that it is Jesus who redeemed the world - that he came to heal and save all of humanity - we not only begin to understand Christ's great commission to go out to all the world, but we should desire what he does. That is, it is our mission to continue what he began by preaching the Gospel to the world. This should challenge us to do two things: to commit ourselves to sharing the Gospel of Jesus with others, and to pray for the work of missionaries and preachers around the world. We must work and pray to help all people find Jesus present now in the Eucharist, and to be united to him forever in heaven.

"...Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever believes in me will do the works that I do, and will do greater ones than these, because I am going to the Father." (John 14:12)

* * * * *

Jesús le dijo: Yo soy el camino, la verdad y la vida. Nadie viene al Padre sino por mí. (Jn 14,6)

Con estas palabras, nuestro Señor deja claro que Él es el único redentor del mundo. A través de su vida, muerte y resurrección, Jesucristo, el Hijo unigénito de Dios, ha derrotado para nosotros las trampas del pecado y la muerte y nos ha traído de vuelta al Padre. Escuchamos estas palabras de Jesús como parte de su conversación con sus apóstoles en la Última Cena. En este momento de enseñanza, el Señor revela su relación única con Dios el Padre. Jesús en realidad está desempacando la naturaleza de la Santísima Trinidad a los Apóstoles, pero ellos no comenzarán a comprenderla hasta que el Espíritu Santo los lleve a una comprensión más profunda después de Pentecostés.

Debido a que nuestra fe enseña que es Jesús quien redimió al mundo, que vino a sanar y salvar a toda la humanidad, no solo comenzamos a entender la gran comisión de Cristo de ir a todo el mundo, sino que debemos desear lo que hace. Es decir, es nuestra misión continuar lo que él comenzó predicando el Evangelio al mundo. Esto debería desafiarnos a hacer dos cosas: comprometernos a compartir el Evangelio de Jesús con otros y orar por el trabajo de misioneros y predicadores de todo el mundo. Debemos trabajar y orar para ayudar a todas las personas a encontrar a Jesús presente ahora en la Eucaristía, y a estar unidos a él para siempre en el cielo.

"... Amén, amén, os digo que el que cree en mí hará las obras que yo hago, y hará mayores que estas, porque voy al Padre". (Juan 14:12)

Weekly Reflection

Spiritual and Religious

by Tommy Shultz, Diocesan Publications Writer

The question is often asked why you need religion at all. Can't you just be a spiritual person and go directly to God? Especially in the wake of scandal, doesn't it seem like all human institutions have failed in one way or another to transmit the Gospel to all people at all times?

Years ago a very popular Youtube video showed a man speaking poetry claiming that he loved Jesus but hated religion. This seems to be a modern response to the horrible tragedies that have happened in religious institutions over the course of history, and these tragedies should not ever go unnoticed or the victims of these tragedies be forgotten.

Though it may be coming from a genuine place of concern for people to say they don't need religion, it is clear from the very beginning that Jesus founded a religion, a visible Church. He knew better than anyone that people could come directly to him, but he didn't set it up that way. In today's First Reading we hear a beautiful story of the early Church organizing and ordaining more priests in order to serve the growing needs of the flock. Right from the very beginning in Acts 6 we see the need for a visible Church that can bring the visible Christ to visible people with tangible needs.

Jesus Builds His Church Through His Disciples

Of course we can always go directly to God, but as human beings we often get in our own way. I know many Protestant friends who ask God directly for forgiveness and then have to struggle through mental games wondering if they truly are sorry and repentant. One of the benefits to a visible Church and visible sacraments is that we don't need to guess. Even Catholics can go directly to God and make a perfect act of contrition, but we are required by Canon Law to confess our sins to a priest, not because the Church wants to assure that we feel embarrassed about our sins, but so that we can have the assurance of forgiveness.

Though the Church is not perfect because it is full of very sinful people, myself included, being spiritual and not religious constantly leaves us wondering or worried about where we stand before God. With the Sacraments we need not worry, we have the assurance of Christ.

So take hope during this Easter season that God has set up a Church, that it is a visible body with authority, and that by living in this Church we can be assured that God is working for our salvation, despite the things we do or the lies we believe. Why not have the best of both worlds? Let's make it a point this Easter season to be spiritual and also religious, clinging to the hope that Jesus brings through his death and resurrection.

From all of us here at Diocesan, God bless!

Our Lady of Fatima

By Marylu Mariniello

In 1917, the Blessed Mother appeared to three children in Portugal, who were sheep herders and not educated, but deeply religious. The children were Lúcia dos Santos and her cousins Francisco and Jacinta Marto.

Before they saw Our Lady, the three children saw three apparitions of an angel in the town of Valinhos. Then they saw the Blessed Mother on May 13, 1917 in Cova de Iria. They would see her six more times, describing her as "a lady more brilliant than the sun." The children said that prayer would lead to the end of the war and that Our Lady would reveal her identity on October 13 of that year and would also perform a great miracle. Word soon spread, causing many to come to the site. While there were believers, there were also sceptics who found the story controversial and implausible. There was strong criticism from both religious and secular areas. The children were taken into custody by a provincial administrator because he felt that the prophecies were politically motivated, opposing the First Portuguese Republic, which was secular and established in 1910.

But the children kept their story. They said that the woman was "brighter than the sun, shedding rays of light clearer and stronger than a crystal goblet filled with the most sparkling water and pierced by the burning rays of the sun." The Blessed Mother wore a white mantle edged with gold, holding a rosary in her hand and asked them to devote themselves to the Holy Trinity and to pray "the Rosary every day, to bring peace to the world and an end to the war." They had never told anyone about seeing the angel, but Jacinta told her family about the woman, which is what they called the Blessed Mother. Her mother thought it was a joke and told her neighbors and word spread fast after that.

The children were told by the woman to return to Cova da Iria on June 13. Lúcia's mother then went to see the parish priest so he could question her daughter. Father Ferreira said that the children should go back to the site, but he wanted to speak to Lúcia. She told him that the woman said that Francisco and Jacinta would be taken to heaven soon, but she would live a longer life to teach about the Immaculate Heart of Mary and tell everyone about the woman's message. The children also said that the woman showed them a vision of hell and told them a secret, which they described as "good for some and bad for others."

Father Ferreira later said that Lúcia related to him that the lady told her, "I want you to come back on the thirteenth and to learn to read in order to understand what I want of you. ...I don't want more."

After this, thousands of people came to Fátima and nearby Aljustrel because they heard of the visions. In August, the Blessed Mother appeared to the children on the nineteenth at Valinhos. Again she asked them to pray the Rosary and told them about a miracle which would come in October. She also asked them "to pray a lot, a lot for the sinners and sacrifice a lot, as many souls perish in hell because nobody is praying or making sacrifices for them."

A huge crowd gathered in October, including reporters and photographers, because they had heard about the impending miracle in that month. The children said that they saw Christ, Our Lady of Sorrows, Our Lady of Mount Carmel and St. Joseph. According to some it had rained. Then the dark clouds broke and the sun appeared as spinning disc in the sky, opaque in color. People said that the sun was significantly duller than normal, casting multicolored lights across the landscape, the clouds and the people. Then the sun careened towards the earth before zigzagging back to its normal position. Witnesses said that their previously wet clothes became "suddenly and completely dry, as well as the wet and muddy ground that had been previously soaked because of the rain that had been falling." Not everyone reported seeing the sun "dance." Some only saw the radiant colors and others, including some believers, saw nothing. The only picture taken of the sun during the event did not show anything extraordinary and there was no unusual phenomenon of the sun observed by scientists at that time. Still, this became known as the "Miracle of the Sun."

The children began doing severe penances such as not drinking water in an extremely hot environment or else drinking dirty water from pond where women did laundry. Francisco and Jacinta Marto died in the global flu pandemic which began in 1918. Francisco died at home on April 4, 1919. He was ten years old. Jacinta was nine when she died on February 20, 1920 at the Queen Stephanie's Children Hospital in Lisbon. They are buried at the Sanctuary of Fátima. They were beatified by Pope John Paul II on May 13, 2000 and canonized by Pope Francis on May 13, 2017.

When she was fourteen, Lúcia was sent to the school of the Sisters of St. Dorothean in Vilar, a suburb of Porto, Portugal. In 1928, she became a postulant at the convent of the Sisters of Saint Dorothy in Tui, Spain. Lúcia continued to have private visions throughout her life, including seeing the Blessed Mother at the convent in 1925.
