Pastor's Message / Mensaje del Pastor

Peter got out of the boat and began to walk on the water toward Jesus. But when he saw how strong the wind was he became frightened; and, beginning to sink, he cried out, "Lord, save me!" Immediately Jesus stretched out his hand and caught Peter, and said to him, "O you of little faith, why did you doubt?" (Matthew 14:29-31)

When we keep our eyes fixed on Jesus, we can weather any storm. The cross is our anchor in the stormy seas of life. Jesus continues to speak those same words of comfort to us when we are experiencing the storms of life: Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid. It is Jesus who will carry us across the stormy seas to the safe harbors of heaven.

The immense and intense God of all the universe chose to speak words of comfort to Elijah in the tiniest whisper, one that can only be heard if the listener has blocked out every other distraction. So often, God's people pray for signs and wonders, and we forget to listen for the tiny whisper or to see the miracles happening all around us. God encourages us not to be distracted by the storms of this world, but to keep our eyes fixed on Jesus, and through him, our salvation.

I will hear what God proclaims; the LORD — for he proclaims peace. Near indeed is his salvation to those who fear him, glory dwelling in our land. (Ps. 85:9-10)

* * * * *

Pedro salió de la barca y comenzó a caminar sobre el agua hacia Jesús. Pero cuando vio cuán fuerte era el viento, se asustó; y, comenzando a hundirse, gritó: "¡Señor, sálvame!" Inmediatamente Jesús extendió su mano y agarró a Pedro, y le dijo: "Oh tú de poca fe, ¿por qué dudaste?" (Mateo 14:29-31)

Cuando mantenemos nuestros ojos fijos en Jesús, podemos capear cualquier tormenta. La cruz es nuestra ancla en los mares tormentosos de la vida. Jesús continúa diciéndonos esas mismas palabras de consuelo cuando estamos experimentando las tormentas de la vida: Ánimo, soy yo; no tengas miedo. Es Jesús quien nos llevará a través de los mares tormentosos a los puertos seguros del cielo.

El inmenso e intenso Dios de todo el universo eligió hablar palabras de consuelo a Elías en el más mínimo susurro, uno que solo se puede escuchar si el oyente ha bloqueado cualquier otra distracción. Muy a menudo, el pueblo de Dios ora por señales y maravillas, y nos olvidamos de escuchar el pequeño susurro o de ver los milagros que suceden a nuestro alrededor. Dios nos anima a no distraernos con las tormentas de este mundo, sino a mantener nuestros ojos fijos en Jesús y, a través de él, en nuestra salvación.

Escucharé lo que Dios proclama; el Señor, porque proclama la paz. De hecho, está cerca su salvación para aquellos que le temen, gloria que habita en nuestra tierra. (Sal. 85:9-10)

Weekly Reflections

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

By Tom Schmidt — Diocesan Publications Writer

Why did Jesus walk on water to the disciples in the boat? Did he want to scare them? No, his first words to them were “Do not be afraid.” While they were being tossed by wind and waves, he showed them that he was not affected by the storm. If they had had faith, they might have realized that if Jesus was safe, they would be, too. We too must make that leap of faith, especially when we are afraid.

Our growth in faith is not a steady progression. For every two steps forward, we may take one step back. For example, we become ill or wreck the car, and think that God has abandoned us. But isn't that a natural reaction?

It is natural to doubt God in times of trouble, but we are choosing to live in the supernatural when we become followers of Christ. Like Peter, we can lose our focus on the Lord. We see someone we love who is gravely sick. We make a serious mistake that gets us in trouble. Faith tells us that though apparently invisible, God is more real than anything we can see. Remember Jesus on the cross saying, “My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?” The Father never abandoned his Son and God will never abandon us.

Hearing and Observing

By Kathryn Muldrink — Diocesan Publications Writer

In today's Gospel, a woman from the crowd gives a shout out to Jesus' mother; because mothers surely deserve some acknowledgment for the virtue of their children! And Jesus says that actually, those who hear and observe the word of God should be praised. At first, Jesus' words may seem dismissive of his mother, as if he is saying that she is not blessed. But we can hear his words as, “Yes, because she heard the word of God and observed it perfectly. And so, blessed are all those who do the same!”

Mary is certainly privileged in many ways, but her true beauty and virtue is that she received all that came from God and every thought, word, action, and desire of hers was in alignment with His will. Today, as we celebrate one of the Marian dogmas of the Church, her Assumption into Heaven, we praise the true blessedness of the Mother of God. Blessed is she who heard the word of God, received it, assented to it, observed it, and never drew back, through all the vicissitudes and confusions and heartache and uncertainty and sorrow that she faced in this life! She remained faithful to her fiat at the Annunciation through the misunderstandings of Joseph and her neighbors, through the threats of the Pharisees against her son, through the lack of understanding of the disciples and the crowds who followed Jesus, all the way to the Cross and beyond. She never wavered.

Throughout her life, we see the strength that she draws from her deep faith and unwavering hope. Even at the Cross, she stood. She did not look away from the worst cruelty and the deepest heartache of a mother we can imagine. She stood, suffering FOR her son, and WITH her son, offering him and herself to the Father. Co-suffering. Co-redeeming.

“She conceived, brought forth and nourished Christ. She presented Him to the Father in the temple, and was united with Him by compassion as He died on the Cross. In this singular way she cooperated by her obedience, faith, hope and burning charity in the work of the Saviour in giving back supernatural life to souls. Wherefore she is our mother in the order of grace.

This maternity of Mary in the order of grace began with the consent which she gave in faith at the Annunciation and which she sustained without wavering beneath the cross, and lasts until the eternal fulfillment of all the elect. Taken up to heaven she did not lay aside this salvific duty, but by her constant intercession continued to bring us the gifts of eternal salvation.” (Lumen Gentium, # 61, 62)

Let's ponder these words from Vatican II today and remember that when her life on earth was finished, her body was not left in a tomb to decay. Rather, she was lifted body and soul into Heavenly glory, to continue her motherhood of the whole Body of Christ! Mary, our Mother, pray for us.

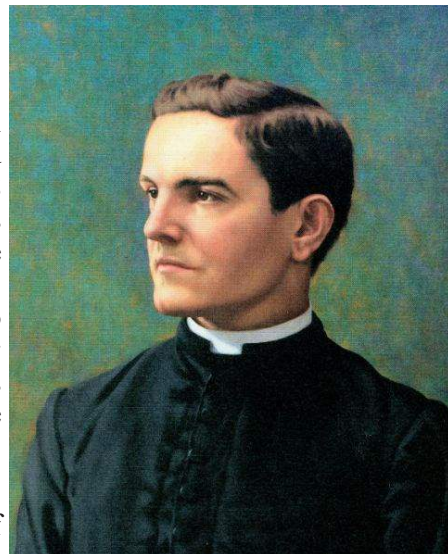

Blessed Michael McGivney

By Marylu Mariniello

Michael Joseph McGivney was born on August 12, 1852 in Waterbury CT, the eldest son of thirteen children of an immigrant Irish family. His father was Patrick McGivney and his mother was Mary Lynch. Six of his siblings died in infancy or childhood. His father worked in a brass mill as a molder in Waterbury.

Michael attended the local public school but left at thirteen to work in one of the brass mills in the spoon-making department. He entered the Séminaire de Saint-Hyacinthe in Saint-Hyacinthe, Quebec, Canada in 1868 when he was sixteen. Michael continued his studies at Our Lady of Angels Seminary, near Niagara Falls, New York from 1871 to 1872 and then at the Jesuits' St. Mary's College in Montreal, Quebec. He was a talented ballplayer, joining the other seminarians to form a baseball team, but in 1873 he had to leave the seminary to help raise his siblings when his father died. Michael later resumed his studies at St. Mary's Seminary in Baltimore, MD, where he was ordained a priest on December 22, 1877 by Archbishop James Gibbons at the Baltimore Cathedral of the Assumption.

Father McGivney was very active in parish and local affairs, serving as director of public plays and fairs. He volunteered to become the guardian of Alfred Downes, a young boy whose father had died leaving a large family in poverty. He knew his own situation of losing his father and understood the position of this family, so he saw the need for lay Catholic men to establish a society to provide financial assistance for families if the primary wage earner died. Father McGivney was also famous for his tireless work among his parishioners.

On March 29, 1882, Father McGivney formed the Knights of Columbus with a small group of St. Mary's parishioners to promote charity, unity and fraternity, assisting widows and orphans. The organization grew and did not remain strictly parish-based because of the Knights' strong position on serving Church, community and family. In 1900, patriotism was added as a founding principle. The Knights of Columbus were among the first groups to recruit blood donors, dating back to 1937 during the Great Depression. Now there are more than two million members and 16,000 councils, including over three hundred on college campuses. Women participate through the Columbiettes and boys can join the Columbian Squires.

Michael McGivney died in 1890 from pneumonia at the age of thirty eight on August 14, 1884 and was buried in Thomaston, CT. His body was moved back to St. Mary's in New Haven where it remains today.

The path to his canonization began in the Archdiocese of Hartford in 1996. He was named a Servant of God in September of 1997. On March 15, 2008, Pope Benedict XVI, declared Father McGivney to be Venerable in recognition of his "heroic virtue." On May 27, 2020, Pope Francis announced that Father McGivney had been approved for beatification, which was performed on October 31, 2020. An additional miracle attributed to Father McGivney is required for his canonization as a saint. At the beatification Mass, Pope Francis praised Father McGivney's "zeal and the proclamation of the Gospel and generous concern for his brothers and sisters." These "made him an outstanding witness of Christian solidarity and fraternal assistance." Blessed Michael McGivney's feast day is August 13. He is the patron saint of the Knights of Columbus and the third US born man to become "Blessed."

Michael Joseph McGivney was a genuine pastor. Pope Francis said that Father McGivney was unafraid to share "the smell of his sheep." Father encouraged families who were strong in their faith to express generous corporal and spiritual works of mercy.

In 1989, the York Catholic District School Board in Ontario, Canada created a school named Father Michael McGivney Catholic Academy in his honor, located in Markham with over one thousand students. A biography of Father McGivney was written by Douglas Brinkley and Julie M. Fenster called Parish Priest: Father Michael McGivney and American Catholicism, which was published in 2006.

The Catholic University of America renamed a prominent building on their campus as McGivney Hall. On September 12, 2009, a stained-glass window depicting Father McGivney was dedicated at St. John Fisher Seminary in Stamford, CT by Bishop William E. Lori of Bridgeport. Father McGivney Catholic High School is located in Glen Carbon, IL
