A message from Father Carlos - Un mensaje de Padre Carlos

Dear Parish Community of St. Faustina,

This weekend we celebrate two important events: the beginning of the new liturgical year and the beginning of the preparation for the Lord's coming. As Christians, at the beginning of the liturgical year, we have the opportunity to set goals that will help us in our conversion and salvation by faith, love, and prayer to gain eternal life. During Advent, we prepare ourselves for the encounter with our Lord in an attitude of vigilance and recognizing the faults that separate us from God's grace.

In the first reading, the prophet Isaiah introduces us to the people of Israel who acknowledge their sins and assume their guilt for having failed to fulfill the promise they made to God. They pray very strongly for divine mercy so that the Lord will return to them and that they will once again be able to enjoy the divine grace that He promised them at His return at the end of time. St. Paul, in the second reading, greets us in a very special way. He desires the peace and grace of the Father and the Son to be with us. This would be enough to enjoy a beautiful day, but the apostle goes further and exhorts us to bear witness to Christ to stand firm in anticipation of his coming. The invitation is for everyone, and God fulfills his Word. Let us listen as St. Mark, the evangelist of this new liturgical year, presents us with Jesus' exhortation to his disciples to remain vigilant because we do not know the day or hour of his return. But this vigilance cannot be passive, it requires being in expectation, in an attitude of prayer and working incessantly proclaiming the Kingdom of God. May the message of this Gospel prompt us to an attitude of vigilance in order to achieve salvation.

I would also like to take this first opportunity to address you through the parish bulletin, to thank you for the wonderful welcome you have given me. In each and every one of your greetings and words of welcome, I have seen reflected Jesus welcoming me to this new community. It has been a few days full of mixed emotions since Our Bishop called me to announce the change. Packing, saying goodbye to the community that welcomed me and accepted me as their priest for seven years, moving to Clermont and unpacking, and starting to get to know the community of St. Faustina, the people of God that I am now called to serve. I am very grateful, and I ask you from the bottom of my heart to please pray for me and know that you are in my prayers. May God's love always be what moves our relationships and our service. Ánimo.

St. Faustina... Pray for us.

Querida comunidad parroquial de St. Faustina,

Este fin de semana celebramos dos eventos importantes: el inicio del nuevo año litúrgico y el comienzo de la preparación para la llegada del Señor. Como cristianos, a principio del año litúrgico, tenemos la oportunidad de establecer unos objetivos que nos ayuden en la conversión y la salvación utilizando la fe, el amor y la oración para ganar la vida eterna. Por otro lado, en el adviento nos preparamos para el encuentro con nuestro Señor en actitud vigilante y reconociendo las faltas que nos separan de la gracia de Dios.

En la primera lectura, el profeta Isaías nos presenta al pueblo de Israel que reconoce sus pecados y asume su culpa por haber fallado a la promesa que hizo con Dios. Con mucha fuerza oran por la misericordia divina para que el Señor vuelva a ellos y puedan nuevamente gozar de la gracia divina que le prometió a su regreso al final de los tiempos. San Pablo, en la segunda lectura, nos saluda de una manera muy particular. Desea que la paz y la gracia del Padre y el Hijo estén con nosotros. Esto sería suficiente para gozar de un hermoso día, pero el apóstol llega más lejos y nos exhorta a dar testimonio de Cristo para mantenernos firme en la espera de su llegada. La invitación es para todos y Dios cumple su Palabra. Escuchemos como San Marcos el evangelista de este nuevo año litúrgico nos presenta la exhortación de Jesús a sus discípulos a mantenerse vigilantes porque no sabemos el día ni la hora de su regreso. Pero esta vigilancia no puede ser pasiva, requiere estar a la expectativa, en actitud de oración y trabajo incesante anunciando el reino de Dios. Que el mensaje de este evangelio nos estimule a asumir una actitud de vigilancia para lograr la salvación.

Por otra parte, en esta primera oportunidad que tengo de dirigirme a ustedes a través del boletín parroquial quiero agradecer la maravillosa acogida que me han dado. En todos y cada uno de sus saludos y palabras de bienvenida he visto reflejado al mismo Jesús que me da la bienvenida a esta nueva comunidad. Han sido días llenos de emociones desde que Nuestro Obispo me llamó para anunciarme el cambio. Empacar, decir adiós a la comunidad que me recibió y me aceptó como su sacerdote por siete años. Mudarme a Clermont y desempacar. Y comenzar a conocer la comunidad de Santa Faustina, el pueblo de Dios que ahora estoy llamado a servir. Estoy muy agradecido y les pido desde el fondo de mi corazón que por favor oren por mí, así como yo estoy orando por ustedes por ustedes. Que el amor de Dios sea siempre lo que mueva nuestras relaciones y nuestro servicio. Ánimo.

Santa Faustina... Ruega por nosotros

Padre Carlos J.

Advent Prayer

First Week of Advent: Blessing of Advent Wreath/Candle Lighting

Lord our God, we praise you for your Son, Jesus Christ: he is Emmanuel, the hope of the peoples, he is the wisdom that teaches and guides us, he is the Savior of every nation.

Lord God, let your blessing come upon us as we light the candles of this wreath. May the wreath and its light be a sign of Christ's promise to bring us salvation. May he come quickly and not delay.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. R/. Amen.

Primera Semana de Adviento: Bendición de la Corona de Adviento / Encendido de Velas

Señor nuestro Dios, te alabamos por tu Hijo, Jesucristo: él es Emmanuel, la esperanza de los pueblos, él es la sabiduría que nos enseña y nos guía, él es el Salvador de cada nación.

Señor Dios, que tu bendición venga sobre nosotros mientras encendemos las velas de esta corona. Que la corona y su luz sean un signo de la promesa de Cristo de traernos la salvación. Que venga pronto y no se demore.

Te lo pedimos por Cristo nuestro Señor. R/. Amén.

ST. FAUSTINA FEATURED In FLORIDA CATHOLIC ARTICLE

On September 19th, Glenda Meekins, from Florida Catholic, attended our 9:30 Mass to do a story on our own Selene Squitieri, who signs the Mass and the music every week. Also in attendance was her niece, Cassidy, who is deaf.

To see the story and video, please go to our parish home page at: <https://stfaustina.org/> and scroll down the left side under Announcements.

Are you still hunting for that unique Christmas gift for that special someone? Perhaps you need to look no further than purchasing a commemorative brick to be included in our Knights of Columbus Memorial to the Unborn. Located on the south side of the church, more than 250 bricks have already been installed, with some of the proceeds benefiting the parish.

Each brick costs just $100 ... and ... for an extra $25 you can purchase a 4x4 replica tile to wrap and put under the Christmas tree.

To order your brick(s), pick up a pamphlet / order form from the literature racks in the back of the church and drop them in the collection basket with your check made payable to: Knights of Columbus 14217 or click on the following link: Welcome to St. Faustina Knights of Columbus/ Catholic Church Website \(polarengraving.com\)

The Seven Joys of Mary

By Marylu Mariniello

December 8 is the feast day of the Immaculate Conception, where we remember that Mary was born without original sin. Our Blessed Mother had Seven Sorrows, but she also had Seven Joys.

The Annunciation (Luke 1:26-38)

The angel Gabriel appeared to a frightened, innocent young woman who was betrothed to Joseph, a carpenter. Gabriel told Mary that she would have a son, which confused her because she wasn't married.

"In the sixth month, the angel Gabriel was sent from God to a town of Galilee called Nazareth, to a virgin betrothed to a man named Joseph, of the house of David, and the virgin's name was Mary. And coming to her, he said, 'Hail, favored one! The Lord is with you.' But she was greatly troubled at what was said and pondered what sort of greeting this might be. Then the angel said to her, 'Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. Behold, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you shall name him Jesus. He will be great and will be called Son of the Most High, and the Lord God will give him the throne of David his father, and he will rule over the house of Jacob forever, and of his kingdom there will be no end.'" But Mary said to the angel, "How can this be, since I have no relations with a man?" And the angel said to her in reply, "The holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore the child to be born will be called holy, the Son of God. And behold, Elizabeth, your relative, has also conceived a son in her old age, and this is the sixth month for her who was called barren; for nothing will be impossible for God." Mary said, "Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord. May it be done to me according to your word." Then the angel departed from her."

The Visitation (Luke 1:39-45)

Now Mary was in the beginning stages of her pregnancy. She decided to visit her cousin Elizabeth, an older woman who never had children. Yet another miracle ensued because she was also with child during her elder years. Elizabeth's son would become John the Baptist, cousin of Christ, preacher and baptizer of many, including Jesus.

"During those days Mary set out and traveled to the hill country in haste to a town of Judah, where she entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth. When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the infant leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth, filled with the holy Spirit, cried out in a loud voice and said, 'Most blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. And how does this happen to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? For at the moment the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the infant in my womb leaped for joy. Blessed are you who believed that what was spoken to you by the Lord would be fulfilled.'"

The Nativity of Jesus Christ (Luke 2:10-14)

Upon arriving in Bethlehem for the census count, Mary and Joseph found that there were no accommodations for them because so many had come to Bethlehem for the same reason. Mary was ready to give birth, but had no place to go. A kindly innkeeper said that they could stay in the stable, so this is where Christ was humbly born, with animals present. It was cold and not the most pleasant place to be, but now they were here with shepherds, sheep and angels to witness. Jesus was placed in a manger, a place where the animals ate.

"The angel said to them, 'Do not be afraid; for behold, I proclaim to you good news of great joy that will be for all the people. For today in the city of David a savior has been born for you who is Messiah and Lord. And this will be a sign for you: you will find an infant wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger.'" And suddenly there was a multitude of the heavenly host with the angel, praising God and saying: "Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests."

The Adoration of the Magi (Matthew 2:10-12)

The Three Wiseman heard of the child and asked Herod about him, but Herod was intent on hurting Christ, so they never went back to report to him. They only offered worship to the Lord.

"They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed for their country by another way."

The Finding of the Child Jesus in the Temple (Luke 2:41-52)

Mary, Joseph and Jesus took their annual trip to Jerusalem with other relatives. Going home, they realized that Jesus was not with the other family members and returned to Jerusalem to look for him. They found him after three days. While they were scared about the loss, they were overjoyed to know that he was safe.

"Each year his parents went to Jerusalem for the feast of Passover, and when he was twelve years old, they went up according to festival custom. After they had completed its days, as they were returning, the boy Jesus remained behind in Jerusalem, but his parents did not know it. Thinking that he was in the caravan, they journeyed for a day and looked for him among their relatives and acquaintances, but not finding him, they returned to Jerusalem to look for him. After three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions, and all who heard him were astounded at his understanding and his answers. When his parents saw him, they were astonished, and his mother said to him, 'Son, why have you done this to us? Your father and I have been looking for you with great anxiety.'" And he said to them, "Why were you looking for me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father's house?" But they did not understand what he said to them. He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them; and his mother kept all these things in her heart. And Jesus advanced [in] wisdom and age and favor before God and man."

The Resurrection of Our Lord (Luke 24:6-7)

Imagine the happiness that Mary now felt after having seen what they did to her Son.

"He is not here, but he has been raised. Remember what he said to you while he was still in Galilee, that the Son of Man must be handed over to sinners and be crucified, and rise on the third day."

The Assumption and Coronation of Mary as Queen of Heaven (Revelation 12:1)

Our Blessed Mother was assumed into Heaven, free from sin.

"A great sign appeared in the sky, a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars."
