A Message from Father Carlos - Un Mensaje de Padre Carlos

My Dear Family of St. Faustina,

Today, we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family. It could not be otherwise: if the Son of God has become one of us, he must be born, live and grow in the bosom of a family, that of Joseph and Mary. The Word of God thus presents the family as an important nucleus in the development of the person. In the Family of Nazareth we discover that every family is called to be a home that welcomes, accompanies and heals. The Solemnity of the Holy Family has been in existence for just over a century: it was established by Pope Leo XIII to give Christian families an evangelical model of life. The example of the family of Nazareth moves us today to live in a different way.

We have heard in the Gospel: "The child grew and strengthened and was filled with wisdom; and the grace of God was with him" (Lk 2:40). This means that Jesus, even in the years he lived in Nazareth, lives up to his name: Saviour. Therefore, the time of Nazareth is a time of salvation. The art of living as Christians in a family consists in shaping our hearts in the style of Jesus: to accept life as a gift and to place hope and trust in God, the only Saviour. In this way, the family will be a school where one learns to always seek God's will, in simplicity, generosity, respect, solidarity, patience, acceptance of weaknesses.

Yes, brothers and sisters, at the center of this Christmas Sunday is the simple and great family of Nazareth. Today we also bid farewell to the year 2023 to give way to 2024 tomorrow and with the new year the celebration of Mary, Mother of God. I want to take this opportunity to thank all of you who in one way or another are salt and light, all the servants in our Parish, all of you are Jesus to me and to the rest of our parish family! Our most precious Christmas gift! May the blessings, the peace, the love, the enjoyment, be forever in your hearts and in the hearts of all you love. My brothers and sisters, I think about 2024 and I can only think of many greater blessings that God has in store for us! Animo!

St. Faustina... Pray for us.
In Christ,
Father Carlos

Mi querida familia de San Faustina,

Hoy, celebramos la Fiesta de la Sagrada Familia. No podía ser de otra manera: si el Hijo de Dios se ha hecho uno de nosotros, tiene que nacer, vivir y crecer en el seno de una familia, la de José y María. La Palabra de Dios nos presenta así a la familia como núcleo importante en el desarrollo de la persona. En la Familia de Nazaret descubrimos que cada familia está llamada a ser hogar que acoge, acompaña y sana. La Solemnidad de la Sagrada Familia, tiene poco más de un siglo de existencia: fue establecida por el papa León XIII para dar a las familias Cristianas un modelo evangélico de vida. El ejemplo de la familia de Nazareth nos mueve hoy a vivir de una manera diferente.

Hemos escuchado en el Evangelio: "el niño iba creciendo y robusteciéndose y se llenaba de sabiduría; y la gracia de Dios lo acompañaba" (Lc 2,40). Ello quiere decir que Jesús, también en los años vividos en Nazaret, hace honor a su nombre: Salvador. Por lo tanto, el tiempo de Nazaret es tiempo de salvación. El arte de vivir como Cristianos en familia, consiste en ir modelando nuestro corazón al estilo de Jesús: acoger la vida como un don y poner la esperanza y confianza en Dios, único Salvador. Así, la familia será una escuela donde se aprende a buscar siempre la voluntad de Dios, en la sencillez, generosidad, respeto, solidaridad, paciencia, aceptación de las debilidades.

Si hermanos y hermanas, en el centro de este Domingo de Navidad, está la sencilla y grandiosa familia de Nazaret. Hoy también despedimos el año 2023 para mañana dar paso al 2024 y con el nuevo año la celebración de María, Madre de Dios. ¡Quiero aprovechar para agradecer a todos los que de una manera u otra son sal y luz, todos los servidores en nuestra Parroquia, todos ustedes son Jesús para mí y para el resto de nuestra familia parroquial! ¡Nuestro regalo de Navidad más preciado! Que las bendiciones la paz, el amor, el disfrute, estén para siempre en sus corazones y en los corazones de todos los que aman. Mis hermanos y hermanas, pienso en el 2024 y... ¡Solo puedo pensar en muchas y mas grandes bendiciones reservadas por Dios para nosotros! ¡Ánimo!

San Faustina... Ruega por nosotros.
En Cristo,
Padre Carlos

WELCOME TO OUR ST. FAUSTINA PARISH FAMILY Whether you are a new parishioner, a constant visitor, or a Snowbird, we say, "welcome to our family."

As you may, or may not know, we were established on September 30, 2006, when our first Mass was said in a hotel room before 64 parishioners. Since then we have moved three times before settling at our permanent home here at 15551 N. Boggy Marsh Road with our first Mass having been celebrated on February 4, 2023.

You can read all about our journey and discover what opportunities are available to you by taking a few minutes to look over our secure website at: www.stfaustina.org.

We encourage everyone who wishes to become part of our family to register with the parish...and there are two ways you can do that.

Registration forms can be downloaded from our website at: New Parishioner Registration - St. Faustina Catholic Church - Clermont \(stfaustina.org\) or you can take a registration form from the rack in the back foyer (as you enter the church) and drop it off at the parish office during regular business hours...Monday thru Thursday from 9 am until 4 pm and on Friday from 9 am to 1 pm.

We sincerely pray that you find us to be the warm and friendly parish that you have been searching for and that you will join us as we continue our legacy to "to foster spiritual growth, and to attend the temporal and social needs of all."

Registration Form

St. Faustina Knights of Columbus Memorial to the Unborn Fundraiser is ongoing, so if you haven't yet ordered your brick, which will be placed alongside the other more than 280 bricks that make up the memorial (which is located on the south side of our church building) you still have time. Order forms can be found on the table located as you enter the church, or you can order on-line by going to their web page on our secure parish website at:

Parish Ministries & Upcoming Events

Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God Mass Schedule

Monday, January 1, 2024

8:00 am (in English)

10:00 am (in Spanish)

PLEASE NOTE: THE CHURCH WILL BE CLOSED AFTER THE 10:00 am MASS.

During this year of Eucharistic Revival, as declared by Pope Francis, our parish will be honoring our Lord, Jesus Christ, every First Friday, this month on January 5, with 12 hours of Eucharistic Adoration through June, 2024.

The schedule is as follows:

8:30 am	Exposition with the Rosary in English
9:00 to 11:30	Silent Adoration
11:30	The Wounds of Christ in both English and Spanish
12:00 pm	Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory Be
12:00 to 3:00	Silent Adoration
3:00	Chaplet of Divine Mercy in both English and Spanish
3:30 to 4:30	Silent Adoration
4:30	The Wounds of Christ in both English and Spanish
5:00 to 7:00	Silent Adoration
7:00	Encounter Jesus through Eucharistic Adoration that includes praise and worship music with a message
8:00 pm	Benediction

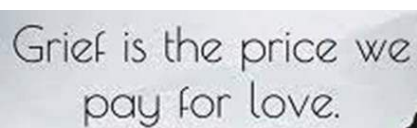

All are welcome to spend some time with Our Lord and Savior.

We cordially invite you to join us at St. Faustina Catholic Church on the first Thursday of each month, to our Maria Rosa Mystica ministry, from 1:00 pm to 2:00 pm. We pray for the Pope, priests, deacons, the religious, and for the increase of religious vocations. We look forward to seeing you and having you join us! Our next meeting is Thursday, January 4.

Join us in praying the “First Saturday Rosary”, (Saturday, January 6, after the 8:00 am Mass, until 8:30 am) to pray for peace, understanding, comfort, and the healing of all people. Reparation to the Immaculate Heart of Mary on First Saturday is for peace in the world, and peace in the Church. The promise attached to the First Saturday of five consecutive months is for the individual. Our Lady promised to Sister Lucia to assist with the graces necessary for salvation, those who, on the First Saturday of five consecutive months, shall confess, receive Holy Communion, recite five decades of the Rosary, and keep her company for fifteen minutes on the Mysteries of the Rosary, with the intention of making reparation to her. The fifteen minutes meditation is done individually on your private time with Our Lady.

GRIEF SUPPORT -- Have you experienced the loss of a loved one, a job, or if you are a caregiver?

St Faustina's Grief Support group is here for you. Please reach out to us.

For more information, please e-mail us at: kmucci@stfaustina.org

It is with utmost respect that we share this friendly reminder with you. Our Church is a Holy place. While in the building, both before, during and after Mass, please be reverent and keep conversations soft and at a minimum, as others are in prayer.

Thank you for your consideration to others and our Lord.

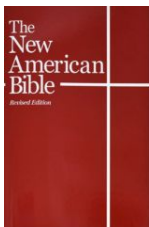

Parish Ministries & Upcoming Events

The parish office is closed on Monday, January 1, in celebration of the new year. While Masses will be held at 8:00 am and 10:00 am, the church will be closed following the 10:00 am Mass.

On behalf of Father Carlos and the entire St. Faustina staff, we wish you, your family and friends, a Safe, Blessed, and Happy New Year!

Beginning on Saturday, January 6th, at the 8:00 am Mass, and every Saturday thereafter, the Mass intention will be for those listed in the Memorial Mass Association. The cost to have your loved one(s) remembered at Mass every Saturday morning, until the end of the year, is $25.00. Please check with the office for more information, thank you!

Need a Bible? We Have you Covered! — At Bible Study and forgot your Bible? Need a Bible to read while you spend time in prayer and reflection? We are pleased to announce that we have a couple of copies of the New American Bible in the front office. If you need a Bible while at St. Faustina, come and sign one out at the front office. It is free to use; we ask that you return it when you have finished using it for that day.

MINISTRY OPPORTUNITIES at ST. FAUSTINA

Did you know that our St. Faustina Parish has over 30 ministries in which you can become involved? From Bible Study, to crafting, to participating in various Liturgy opportunities during our Masses, to private prayer, our little parish offers something for everyone. There are also several ministries for our children to become involved...choir, hand-held-bells, youth group...just to name a few.

Almost all our ministries are represented on their own individual pages on our parish's secure website.

First, got to our home page at: <https://stfaustina.org/>.

If you are interested in our Liturgical Ministry offerings, click on: <https://stfaustina.org/worship-and-liturgy/>.

If you are interested in our general ministries, click on: <https://stfaustina.org/ministries/>.

If you don't see something there that interests you and have an idea for a ministry for the parish to consider, please email us at: office@stfaustina.org.

So, as we look forward to what the Lord has instore for us as individuals, as families, and as a parish, please prayerfully consider enhancing your faith-life by joining us as we praise God in all His Glory through one of our ministries.

(*Note to ministry leaders...*if your ministry is not currently represented on our parish website and you would like it to be, please contact us at: office@stfaustina.org and someone will be in touch with you).

HOSPITALITY WEEKEND — Join your parish family next weekend, January 6 and 7, as we kickoff the new year with our monthly Hospitality Weekend. Fun, fellowship, and goodies, will be available after Saturday's 4:00 pm Mass and after all the morning Masses on Sunday. If you would like to join this ministry, see the article above and go to their web page.

HAPPY NEW YEAR!!

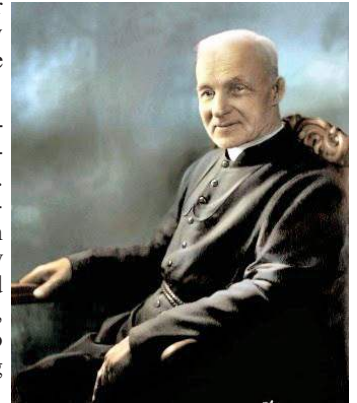

St. André Bessette

By Marylu Mariniello

Alfred Bessette was born on August 9, 1845 in Mont-Saint-Grégoire, Québec, Canada, a small town twenty five miles southeast of Montreal. His father was Isaac Bessette, a carpenter and lumberman and his mother Clothilde Foisy was a homemaker and oversaw the education of the children. He was the eighth of twelve children. Four of his siblings died in infancy. Alfred was extremely frail at birth, being baptized the following day. In 1849, the family moved to Farnham, Quebec for work for his father as a lumberman, who was killed by a falling tree when Alfred was nine years old, His mother was now forty years old, taking care of her children, but she died of tuberculosis within three years. Alfred became an orphan at the age of twelve.

He was then placed under the care of Timothée and Rosalie Nadeau of Saint-Césaire, Quebec following his mother's death. There he attended catechetical lessons taught by his parish's pastor, André Provençal, where he developed his two lifelong devotions to the Passion of Christ and to St. Joseph. He was confirmed at the age of twelve and started school at fourteen, but soon left because he had learning difficulties. His foster father Timothée wanted Alfred to become a laborer since he felt that an orphan didn't need to be educated. Then Alfred went to live with Louis Ouimet, the mayor of Saint-Césaire. Now he worked at a series of occupations, including farming, tinsmith, blacksmith, wheelwright, cobbler and baker, all which were too difficult for him to do because he was physically weak. Searching for work, Alfred moved to Moosup, Connecticut when he was eighteen. He joined several of his relatives who worked at textile mills across Connecticut and Rhode Island, but he returned to Canada in 1867 following the creation of the Canadian Confederation.

André Provençal was the pastor of the parish where Alfred now attended and saw the devotion and generosity of the young man. He decided to write a note to the Superior of the Congregation of Holy Cross in Montreal, saying "I'm sending you a saint." Alfred was initially rejected by the order because of frail health, but Archbishop Ignace Bourget of Montreal intervened on his behalf. In 1872, Alfred was accepted and entered the novitiate of the congregation, receiving the religious name of Brother André, which was how he was known for the rest of his life. He made his final vows on February 2, 1874 at the age of 28.

The Holy Cross Brothers were teachers, yet Alfred still did not know how to read and write. After taking his vows, Brother André was sent to Notre Dame College in Montreal as a porter.

His responsibilities were to answer the door, welcome guests and unite them with the people they were visiting, wake up the students, serve in the laundry room and deliver mail. He was also the Sacristan. Brother André joked later, "At the end of my novitiate, my superiors showed me the door, and I stayed there for forty years."

Brother André had great confidence in St. Joseph. When he visited the sick, he would rub the person with oil from a lamp at the college chapel and pray to St. Joseph for them. Many claimed that they were cured through these prayers and they were grateful, but Brother refused to take any credit. All he wanted was to have a chapel built for St. Joseph.

An epidemic broke out at a nearby college and Brother André volunteered to nurse the sick. No one died. Soon people flocked to see him, making his superiors uneasy. Diocesan authorities were suspicious of him and doctors called him a quack, but Brother said, "I do not cure, Saint Joseph cures." Tensions increased at the college with so many of the sick people coming to see Brother André, causing school officials to forbid his ministry. He was permitted to receive the sick in the nearby tramway station instead of the college. His reputation spread, making him a controversial figure. There were many brothers in the Congregation as well as teachers and parents of students at the College who supported him, but many opposed him and considered him dangerous to the well-being of the school's reputation because they thought that he was a charlatan. Others were concerned for the health of the students, fearing the diseases carried by the sick who met with him.

In 1904, Brother André asked the Archbishop of Montreal if he could build a chapel for St. Joseph on the mountain near the college. The Archbishop would only give him permission to build a site with the money that Brother had, which was earned by giving haircuts and from a sign stating "Donations for St. Joseph." It was only a few hundred dollars, but Brother André built a small wood shelter fifteen feet by eighteen feet. He kept collecting money and went back three years later to request additional building, saying "I have only my great devotion to St. Joseph to guide me." He received the permission and added a roof so that all the people who were coming to hear Mass would be covered from rain or snow. Then walls were added as well as heating and a paved road was built leading to the mountain. This was now a shelter for pilgrims and a place where Brother André and others could live and take care of the shrine.

Many came and through kindness, caring, and devotion, Brother André helped people experience healing and renewal.

Eventually, he needed four secretaries to handle the 80,000 letters he received each year. Soon he started to build a Basilica but the Depression interfered. At ninety years old he told his co-workers to place a statue of St. Joseph in the unfinished, unroofed Basilica. He was very sick and had to be carried up the mountain to see the statue in its new home. Brother André died soon after on January 6, 1937 and didn't live to see the work on the Basilica completed. One million people filed past his coffin.

Brother André Bessette was declared venerable in 1978 and was beatified by Pope John Paul II in 1982. Pope Benedict XVI canonized him on October 17, 2010.

St. André Bessette is the first Canadian living after the Confederation to be canonized. The feast day for St. André Bessette is January 6 and he is the patron saint of the rejected.

This is his prayer:

"Blessed Brother André, your devotion to Saint Joseph is an inspiration to us. You gave your life selflessly to bring the message of his life to others. Pray that we may learn from Saint Joseph, and from you, what it is like to care for Jesus and do his work in the world. Amen."

Have a Blessed New Year.
