Pastor's Message / Mensaje del Pastor

And Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house because this man too is a descendant of Abraham. For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save what was lost." (Lk 19:9-10)

Like Zacchaeus, we are called to seek out Jesus, knowing that he is also seeking us. This mutual "seeking" is what produces a life-changing encounter with Jesus Christ. When we seek out Jesus in prayer and the sacraments, we come to know him personally and allow him to know us personally. In prayer, we allow ourselves to be seen by him and have our lives transformed by his closeness to us.

Jesus isn't content with us watching him from a distance. He calls out to us and says, Come down quickly, for today I must stay at your house. Even if we have a sinful past like Zacchaeus, Jesus' desire to stay with us remains the same. It is important to recognize Jesus' desire for us and - at the same time - our desire for him. These mutual desires are each gifts of God, so that we might fulfill our created purpose for union with him.

When we come to celebrate the Mass, these mutual desires are profoundly met in the reception of holy Communion. And one day these desires will be fully realized for all eternity - when our joy at seeing Jesus face to face will be surpassed only by his joy at seeing us.

But you spare all things, because they are yours, O LORD and lover of souls, for your imperishable spirit is in all things! Therefore you rebuke offenders little by little, warn them and remind them of the sins they are committing, that they may abandon their wickedness and believe in you, O LORD! (Wis. 12:1-2)

* * * * *

Y Jesús le dijo: "Hoy la salvación ha llegado a esta casa porque este hombre también es descendiente de Abraham. Porque el Hijo del Hombre ha venido a buscar y a salvar lo que se perdió". (Lc 19,9-10)

Al igual que Zaqueo, estamos llamados a buscar a Jesús, sabiendo que Él también nos está buscando a nosotros. Esta "búsqueda" mutua es lo que produce un encuentro que cambia la vida con Jesucristo. Cuando buscamos a Jesús en la oración y en los sacramentos, llegamos a conocerlo personalmente y le permitimos conocernos personalmente. En la oración, nos dejamos ver por Él y transformamos nuestras vidas por su cercanía a nosotros.

Jesús no está contento con que lo veamos desde la distancia. Él nos llama y nos dice: Baja rápido, porque hoy debo quedarme en tu casa. Incluso si tenemos un pasado pecaminoso como Zaqueo, el deseo de Jesús de quedarse con nosotros sigue siendo el mismo. Es importante reconocer el deseo de Jesús por nosotros y, al mismo tiempo, nuestro deseo por él. Estos deseos mutuos son cada uno de los dones de Dios, para que podamos cumplir nuestro propósito creado para la unión con Él.

Cuando venimos a celebrar la Misa, estos deseos mutuos se encuentran profundamente en la recepción de la Sagrada Comunión. Y un día estos deseos se realizarán plenamente por toda la eternidad, cuando nuestro gozo de ver a Jesús cara a cara será superado sólo por su gozo al vernos.

¡Pero perdona todas las cosas, porque son tuyas, oh Señor y amante de las almas, porque tu espíritu imperecedero está en todas las cosas! Por lo tanto, reprende a los ofensores poco a poco, adviértalos y recuérdelos los pecados que están cometiendo, para que abandonen su maldad y crean en ti, ¡oh Señor! (Sab. 12:1-2)

Masses will be held at 8 am and 7 pm.

The St. Faustina Bereavement and Consolation Ministry cordially invite you to join us for our All Souls Bilingual Mass on Wednesday, November 2nd at 7:00pm. During this Mass, we will honor your loved one, as well as other members of our parish community who have entered into Eternal Life during this past year.

Nuestra próxima reunión es el jueves 6 de octubre.

We cordially invite you to join us at St. Faustina Catholic Church on the first Thursday of each month, to our Maria Rosa Mystica ministry, from 1:00 PM to 2:00 PM. FIRST FRIDAY ADORATION—As is the custom here at St. Faustina, the First Friday Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament will be held on Friday, November 4th following the 8 a.m. Mass (from 8:30 a.m. until 9:30 a.m.). The Holy Rosary is prayed during the Exposition followed by quiet personal time with Our Lord. Please join us.

Join us in praying the “First Saturday Rosary”, (Saturday, November 5 after the 8:00 am Mass, until 8:30) to pray for peace, understanding, comfort, and the healing of all people. Reparation to the Immaculate Heart of Mary on First Saturday is for peace in the world, and peace in the Church. The promise attached to the First Saturday of five consecutive months is for the individual. Our Lady promised to Sister Lucia to assist with the graces necessary for salvation, those who, on the First Saturday of five consecutive months, shall confess, receive Holy Communion, recite five decades of the Rosary, and keep her company for fifteen minutes on the Mysteries of the Rosary, with the intention of making reparation to her. The fifteen minutes meditation is done individually on your private time with Our Lady.

“Your Faith Anew” ministry meets Saturday, November 5th, following the 8 am Mass and Rosary, ending promptly at 10AM. We strive for the fulfillment of the Lord’s Prayer, “...thy Will be done on Earth as it is in Heaven.” by exploring the gift of living IN the Divine Will through instructor led; prayer, readings and song. # St. Charles Borromeo

By Marylu Mariniello

Carlo Borromeo was born on October 2, 1538 to a wealthy family in Arona, Italy near Lake Maggiore. His father was a Count and his mother was a member of the House of Medici. Carlo was well educated, earning a doctorate in canon and civil law. He also ran his household at the death of his father in 1554. His family wanted him to marry and preserve the family name, but he chose to join the clergy, in the service of the Church.

His uncle, Cardinal Giovanni Angelo Medici, became Pope Pius IV on December 25, 1559, asking Charles to go to Rome to take over many important assignments at the Vatican. He was ordained a priest at the age of twenty five, later becoming the Archbishop of Milan and then a Cardinal. He oversaw the areas of the new ranks of the government of the Papal States, the Knights of Malta, the Franciscans and the Carmelites. He founded a college at Pavia dedicated to St. Justina of Padua in 1561, which still exists today, now known as Almo Collegio Borromeo.

He began a lengthy reform of his diocese, which had not had a resident bishop in eighty years. At this time, the clergy was unschooled and disobedient, while the religious orders were negligent and the laity had drifted away from Church teachings. Charles corrected these abuses and upheld the integrity of the Church's internal structure, visiting all of the locations for inspection. Additionally, he simplified church interiors to avoid distraction and to welcome the worshipping of God. All of these changes brought strong opposition and threats against his life, which led to an assassination attempt.

Charles created schools, hospitals, seminaries and orphanages, as well as the first Sunday School classes, also producing an official catechism for students. He was a participant in the Council of Trent and persevered when the Council was in danger of breaking up. He was a leading defender of Church with his teachings on the Counter Reformation, working with Ignatius of Loyola and Philip Neri defending Catholicism. All three would become saints.

In 1583, Charles went to Switzerland to begin work suppressing heresy there. He founded the Collegium Helveticum to educate Swiss Catholics. He was very prudent, with Catholic kings and queens of Europe and the popes under whom he served, all seeking his counsel. His virtue was evident to everyone.

Yet with all of this, Charles was very humble, living plainly and striving for sanctity.

Charles stayed in the city to care for the sick when a plague and famine occurred in Milan in 1576, while government officials fled. He used his own money to feed the thousands of hungry people each day and then borrowed more when his funds were depleted.

All of this work exhausted Charles, who died on November 3, 1584 at the age of forty six. He was beatified on May 12, 1602 by Pope Paul V and canonized also by Pope Paul V on November 1, 1610.

St. Charles Borromeo is the patron saint of bishops, catechists, catechumens, seminarians, cardinals, spiritual leaders, Lombardy, Italy, Monterey, California and Sao Carlos, Brazil.

His feast day is November 4.
